

Autobiography Rough Draft

My name is Samantha Rose Peluchette and I was born 12 weeks premature on January 3, 1992 in Allegheny General Hospital at 9:36 pm. When I was born I weighed 2 lbs. 13 oz. and I could fit in my dad's hand. My mother, Hope Edwards, was 15 years old and my dad, Daniel Peluchette, was 19 years old. I was in the hospital in an incubator until April because I was born so early.

My mother grew up in Wexford, Pa and went to Pine Richland High School. My dad grew up in Saxonburg, Pa and went to Deer Lakes High School. My grandma, great-grandparents, aunts, and uncles on my mother's side of the family still live in or around Wexford. My mom's father lives in New Castle, Pa. My dad's parents both passed away before I met them, but they lived in Saxonburg, Pa. My dad's brother lives in Tarentum and my dad's aunts and uncles and my great-grandma live in Grove City, Pa. On my mother's side, my great-grandma was Slovakian and my great-grandpa was Polish, German, and Native American. On my dad's side of the family, everyone is Italian. On my mom's side of the family, everyone has been living in western Pennsylvania for as long as any of us can remember, but my grandma says that my great-great-great-grandparents came to America from Poland and Germany. On my dad's side of the family I don't know very many of my family members, so I'm not sure how they came to live in Grove City, Pa.

After I was born, my mom and dad separated and I went to live with my great-grandma until I was seven years old. While I lived with my great-grandma, I went to North Allegheny School District, went to a Baptist church every Sunday, and played with my friends. When I was seven, I moved in with my mom and my now step-dad, Jim. This

Robert Penn Warren, Shadowy Autobiography, and Other Makers of American Literature Joseph R. Millichap, 2023-08-18 Toward the end of his career Robert Penn Warren wrote It may be said that our lives are our own supreme fiction Although lauded for his writing in multiple genres Warren never wrote an autobiography Instead he created his own shadowy autobiography in his poetry and prose as well as his fiction and nonfiction As one of the most thoughtful scholars on Robert Penn Warren and the literature of the South Joseph Millichap builds on the accepted idea that Warren's poetry and fiction became more autobiographical in his later years by demonstrating that that same progression is replicated in Warren's literary criticism. This meticulously researched study reexamines in particular Warren's later nonfiction in which autobiographical concerns come into play that is in those fraught with psychological crisis such as Democracy and Poetry. Millichap reveals the interrelated literary genres of autobiography, criticism, and poetry as psychological modes encompassing the interplay of Warren's life and work in his later nonfiction. He also shows how Warren's critical engagement with major American authors often centered on the ways their creative work intersected with their lives, thus generating both autobiographical criticism and the working out of Warren's own autobiography under these influences. Millichap's latest book focuses on Warren's critical responses to William Faulkner, John Crowe Ransom, Herman Melville, Nathaniel Hawthorne, John Greenleaf Whittier, and Theodore Dreiser. In addition, the author carefully considers the black and female writers Warren assessed more briefly in American Literature: The Makers and the Making. Robert Penn Warren, Shadowy Autobiography, and Other Makers of American Literature presents the breadth of Millichap's scholarship, the depth of his insight, and the maturity of his judgment by giving us to understand that in his writing Robert Penn Warren came to know his own vocation as a poet and critic and as an American.

The Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt, 2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently
