Significant changes in both the hly gene, which encodes the exfoliative toxin, and in hly promoter regions have been observed. These strains appear to constitute a distinct group. They probably arose by direct genetic transfer via the hly gene transposon. Our data suggest that the hly gene, translocated from their original site, directs the synthesis of exfoliating proteolytic toxin upon infection.

Howard Zinn Answer Guide:

Howard Zinn's Southern Diary Howard Zinn, 2018-09-15 Cohen presents an edited volume of Zinn's diary made available from his papers at NYU's Tamiment Library. Zinn's diary entries focus on issues of race, class, democracy, and freedom that were of concern to him throughout his Atlanta years, 1956-63.

Howard Zinn Martin Duberman, 2012-10-02 Howard Zinn was perhaps the best known and most widely celebrated popular interpreter of American history in the twentieth century, renowned as a bestselling author, a political activist, a lecturer, and one of America's most recognizable and admired progressive voices. His rich, complicated, and fascinating life placed Zinn at the heart of the signal events of modern American history, from the battlefields of World War II to the McCarthy era, the civil rights and the antiwar movements, and beyond. A bombardier who later renounced war, a son of working class parents who earned a doctorate at Columbia, a white professor who taught at the historically black Spelman College in Atlanta, a committed scholar who will be forever remembered as a devoted people's historian, Howard Zinn blazed a bold iconoclastic path through the turbulent second half of the twentieth century. For the millions who were moved by Zinn's personal example of political engagement and by his inspiring bottom-up history, here is an authoritative biography of this towering figure by Martin Duberman, recipient of the American Historical Association's 2007 Lifetime Achievement Award. Given exclusive access to the previously closed Zinn archives, Duberman's impeccably researched biography is illustrated with never before published photos from the Zinn family collection. Howard Zinn: A Life on the Left is a major publishing event that brings to life one of the most inspiring figures of our time. A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Kathy Emery, Ellen Reeves, 2003 This brilliant and moving history of the American people. Abridged for use in the classroom.

Howard Zinn Speaks Howard Zinn, 2012-11-06 A wide-ranging collection of speeches, many published here for the first time by the historian and author of A People's History of the United States. Howard Zinn has illuminated our history like no other US historian. This collection of his speeches on protest movements, racism, war, and American history covers more than four decades of his active engagement with the audiences he inspired with his humor, insight, and clarity. This volume features Zinn's impassioned and erudite statements on the war in Vietnam, abolishing the death penalty, the legacy of Emma Goldman, the myth of American exceptionalism, the Obama Administration, and much more. Reading Howard's spoken words, I feel that I am almost hearing his voice again, his stunning pitch-perfect ability to capture the moment and the concerns and needs of the audience, whoever they may be, always enlightening, often stirring, an amalgam of insight, critical history, wit, blended with charm and appeal. Noam Chomsky, leading public intellectual and author of Hopes and Prospects. With ferocious moral clarity and mischievous humor, Howard turned routine antiwar rallies into profound explorations of state violence and staid academic conferences into revival meetings for social change. Naomi Klein, author of No Is Not.
