My Mother as My Hero Essay

Everyone has different heroes, for some people their heroes have special powers. Well, my hero is my mother Carol.

She is the most hardworking and supportive person I know. My mother is now 43 years old, she has three girls and one boy. She worked at Housekeeping department for 5 years but transferred to Sports Bar as a food runner this year. My mother has a big impact in my life because she is always there for me no matter what and she gives me the best advice when I am having a hard time. She believes that I can achieve anything, my mother influenced me to finish my education, and made me go out of my comfort zone.

My mother helped and showed me that I can achieve anything as long I put my mind into it. She also taught me how to be a good person, for example respecting people that are older than you. When I don't have confidence, she motivates me to believe in myself that I can do anything for example, this year in sports not having enough confidence in myself made me think that I will not play a game like what happened last year not playing at least one game. Sometimes when I need help with my homework, my mom will not hesitate to help me even though she doesn't know it.

My mother life wasn't easy like what I thought because she never showed or told how she struggled unless we ask her about her life. Growing up, my mother used to work every summer when there's no school at her Aunty to help her family. With all her hard work and dedication my mother graduated college and became a med-tech. She migrated to United States in 2013 after being separated from us for about three years. Coming here, she had a hard time finding a job because she couldn't use her degree in United States. Instead, she had an opportunity to apply in Housekeeping at Four Season.

Another reason why she is my hero is because she influenced me to finish my education in highschool and to graduate with honors. My mother inspires me more to attend college and pick a career that I am interested. When I was in elementary, I used to struggle in Language Arts and Math but my mom made me realize that if I work harder in school, listen and pay attention to the teacher and ask for help. I can understand the topic that is being taught to me more. I am a shy person but my mother inspires me to look up to her, a person who have confidence in herself.

My mom also made me go out of my comfort zone. Coming from a different country, I didn't want to me

My Mom Is My Hero Essay:

With Joseph □□□ Helen Miok Annis, 2024-11-15 After sending Joseph away I spent a long time with a sad heart I tried to overcome my sadness but even now I cry when I think of Joseph As they say When a husband dies a woman buries it in the mountain and when a child dies woman buries it in their heart A deep sense of loss biting sadness and a dazed feeling as if I had been hit in the back of the head with a heavy blunt hammer engulfed me It couldn't end like this My life which is over sixty years old is also a life but I felt that I needed to sort out the life of my son who left without even being able to say a final goodbye to the family and friends who loved him I want to tell people how Joseph was born what kind of person he was and how he lived as a young man Joseph was an ordinary son but he was a free spirit who lived a wonderful life The life of my son Joseph was in a few words a short and bold life He was loved and gave love to everyone during his short life This book is for Joseph and those who love him It is no exaggeration to say that this is a collection of Joseph's remains as it contains the diary poems and letters he left behind It is a coauthored book that combines his writing and my heart as a mother This book contains the story of how I gave birth to and raised Joseph as well as the bicycle travel diary that Joseph wrote before he passed away It also contains letters written by friends and family members who loved Joseph as they missed him We collected translated and published friend's letters one by one Joseph is gone but we want to be with him forever I hope that this book With Joseph becomes a space where everyone including the family and friends who love him can meet and talk about Joseph I thank God for comforting and guiding me my family and everyone who loved Joseph We will miss Joseph but I hope this book With Joseph will keep him with us It's just a healthy separation where we live apart for a while I will meet my son Joseph again some day with joy Publishing the book With Joseph by Helen Miok Annis Cracked K. McAllister,2009-10-23 At the present time there are 5 3 million people in the U S living with Alzheimers and by 2010 nearly half a million new cases will be added each year Data indicate that 70% of Alzheimers patients are cared for at home Current studies of Alzheimers raise the possibility that early life traumas may be influential in the development of the disease There is evidence that chronic psychological stress is associated with a nearly three fold increased risk of the illness Family members and caregivers of Alzheimers patients health professionals and all who are concerned about the dramatic increase of the illness are interested in information which brings a greater depth to understanding those afflicted with Alzheimers This book is autobiographical and thus becomes an Alzheimers story It is the story of an emotionally isolated childhood an unproductive education and an unhappy first marriage My deliverance came in the sustaining love of a second marriage and a rewarding life with my psychiatrist husband But now I have an illness that threatens the life restored and attempts to pummel me back into the depths of those earlier years Since the onset of Alzheimers six years ago the memories of my early years now return not just as thoughts but as feelings and they leave a defining imprint on the symptoms of my Alzheimers These symptoms include unreasoned resentment desperate feelings of isolation periods of profound embarrassment and humiliation inexplicable and uncontrollable anger recurring perceptions of personal guilt and inadequacy All of these currently darken my days and threaten my desire to live These are the same emotions that colored the earlier years of my life Now the raging emotions return and the emotional incontinence of Alzheimers puts my peace my love indeed my life once again in jeopardy

Extraordinary Ordinairiness Simon Wendt,2016-11-10 This collection of essays looks at everyday heroes and heroines ordinary men women and children who are honored for actual or imagined feats Comparing the United States Germany and Britain it asks both when this particular hero type first emerged and how it was discussed and depicted in political discourse mass media literature film and other forms of popular culture Looking across fields of study countries and centuries this book sheds new light on the many social cultural and political functions that our everyday heroes have served

Mom's Stories Heather Randell,2011-05-13 The events recounted here are unapologetically written in a subjective manner and are not recounted for their accuracy as much as for the heritage they celebrate I am sharing stories that our Mother told me of her heritage and life prior to her marriage to our Father Perhaps she told them when I was at home sick or pretending to be Perhaps it was a stormy day and I was afraid Perhaps our Mother was rocking me to help me recover from real or imagined night terrors I fully acknowledge my deep emotional ties to our Mother and therefore I am not claiming to be objective Born in rural Newfoundland in the early 1900 s our Mother lived a very isolated life and perhaps this is why she always cherished her solitude Henceforth I will refer to her as Mom and to our maternal Grandmother as Mother The lady who became Mom insisted on naming the farm animals leaving her home to travel by dog team ship and train to enter a life of service I have to stop myself from getting too far ahead I really hope you enjoy the book as it unfolds I am thrilled that writing down these memories has affirmed for me that most things are relative especially when it involves familial relatives I reiterate that I do not promise that I have produced a factual account of any of the enclosed events but rather I cling to the subjective accounts of our Mom as I remember them I set out to record stories from her childhood and doing so has driven me to writing another one about my own childhood
