My Life And Work:

My Life and Work Henry Ford, Samuel Crowther, 1922 My Life and Work is a classic autobiography of the great American business mogul Henry Ford. Henry Ford (July 30 1863 – April 7 1947) was an American industrialist the founder of the Ford Motor Company and sponsor of the development of the assembly line technique of mass production. Although Ford did not invent the automobile or the assembly line he developed and manufactured the first automobile that many middle class Americans could afford. This is his story in his own words. Although Ford did not invent the automobile or the assembly line 1 he developed and manufactured the first automobile that many middle class Americans could afford. In doing so Ford converted the automobile from an expensive curiosity into a practical conveyance that would profoundly impact the landscape of the 20th century. His introduction of the Model T automobile revolutionized transportation and American industry. As the owner of the Ford Motor Company he became one of the richest and best known people in the world. He is credited with Fordism mass production of inexpensive goods coupled with high wages for workers. Ford had a global vision with consumerism as the key to peace. His intense commitment to systematically lowering costs resulted in many technical and business innovations including a franchise system that put dealerships throughout most of North America and in major cities on six continents. Ford left most of his vast wealth to the Ford Foundation and arranged for his family to control the company permanently. Ford was also widely known for his pacifism during the first years of World War I and for promoting antisemitic content including The Protocols of the Elders of Zion through his newspaper The Dearborn Independent and the book The International Jew. Henry Ford was born July 30 1863 on a farm in Greenfield Township Michigan. 2 His father William Ford (1826–1905) was born in County Cork Ireland to a family that was originally from Somerset England. 3 His mother Mary Ford nee Litogot (1839–1876) was born in Michigan as the youngest child of Belgian immigrants; her parents died when she was a child and she was adopted by neighbors the O'Herns. Henry Ford's siblings were Margaret Ford (1867–1938) Jane Ford (c. 1868–1945) William Ford (1871–1917) and Robert Ford (1873–1934). His father gave him a pocket watch in his early teens. At 15 Ford dismantled and reassembled the timepieces of friends and neighbors dozens of times gaining the reputation of a watch repairman. 4 At twenty Ford walked four miles to their Episcopal church every Sunday. 5 Ford was devastated when his mother died in 1876. His father expected him to eventually take over the family farm but he despised farm work. He later wrote "I never had any particular love for the farm; it was the mother on the farm I loved." 6 In 1879 Ford left home to work as an apprentice machinist in Detroit first with James F. Flower Bros. and later with the Detroit Dry Dock Co. In 1882 he returned to Dearborn to work on the family farm where he became adept at operating the Westinghouse portable steam engine. He was later hired by Westinghouse to service their steam engines. During this period Ford also studied bookkeeping at Goldsmith Bryant Stratton Business College in Detroit. My Life and Work Henry Ford, 2018-10-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. Workstyle Alex Hirst,Lizzie Penny,2022-10-13 Workstyle is the freedom to choose when and where you work It is only now after centuries of formal and inflexible working hours that such an opportunity is on the horizon It is an opportunity that will have far reaching and profoundly positive implications levelling the playing field and helping to create true inclusivity and accessibility in our society This inspiring book will explain the history of work where the 9 5 came from and why the time is right for change You'll learn how workstyle differs from flexible hybrid or remote working and why it matters Most importantly you'll explore and design your own workstyle by reflecting on the things that matter to you acting to change your life and inspiring others to do the same all underpinned by research that proves that this is a better way to work for us all This book is for everyone who has had to take a day off work to receive a delivery or go to a doctor's appointment It is for anyone who has caring responsibilities for parents for those with illnesses with mental health issues who feel burnt out or who are living with disabilities It is for those who are older who identify as neurodiverse or who consider themselves different in any way It is for people who feel disenchanted with work and want to live a meaningful fulfilled life It is for anyone who questions why they need to commute to an office to be productive It is for every person who has a life outside of work This book is for everyone This book is for you Christ Our Passover Lamb Joseph Agbi,2012-03 This book is written in line with apostolic orthodoxy of Scripture It gives clear theological thought why only Jesus Christ qualifies as our Passover Lamb showing how the sacrificial death of Christ negates the effect of the Fall of Adam and Eve The book reviews the sacrifices of Old Testament patriarchs priests prophets and kings It narrates in detail the origin and events of the Jewish Passover which also foreshadows the New Testament Passover instituted by Christ In this book you will understand clearly why other sacrifices by mankind are not enough for sin atonement The book brings to light why believers should share in the elements of the covenant at the Holy Communion Table with reverence and hearts of gratitude to God for the finished work of Christ on the cross Christ Our Passover Lamb is a must for anyone who wants to know more why grace and truth came by Jesus Christ giving you an insight into the mystery of His sacrifice hidden in the mind of God before the world began This book will certainly bless and inspire you to share in the marriage supper of the Lamb with other saints in His coming Kingdom
