Aleksander,2010-04-19 There is no available information at this time Unreasonable Doubt Essam M. Al Mohandis,2014-11-17 What urged me to jot down what I had written in this little novel are the lessons that I have learned from the grand Lifes University I had benefited from the experiences that I learned Some specific points are clearly pointed and i am sure you would be able to grasp what is between the lines Yes I had learned felt seen and believed that the person who is conscious of Allah the Almighty He would make him a way out and provide him with means from sources he would think the least he would be able to get from Allah the Almighty granted me strength after weakness He granted me security after being frightened He granted me provisions after being poor Allah the Almighty employed for me those who knew me and those who don't know me I kept on calling and invoking upon the King of all kings Lord I raised my hand up to Him He didn't return them empty out of His generosity and kindness Some of the most beautiful moments are those which man spends with his own thoughts and memories that he lives second by second as he feels their sweetness bitterness hopes pains pleasures and sorrows and all their details As I jot down what I could of such moments and capture them by words and phrases I beg your pardon and ask your forgiveness I don't mean to excite you and stir your emotions through a novelist writing but rather I would like to give an honest account of my own story that carries my own emotions and feelings I seek your permission to sail with me in order to narrate to you and in order to see with your own eyes the events of two months of suffering and pains that I spent in the USA in the state of Massachusetts in the city of Boston

Son of Elsewhere Elamin Abdelmahmoud, 2022-05-17 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF THE YEAR A funny and frank The New York Times collection of essays on Blackness faith pop culture and the challenges and rewards of finding one's way in the world from a BuzzFeed editor and podcast host A memoir that is immense in its desire to give a rich offering of image of music of place Hanif Abdurraqib author of A Little Devil in America Notes in Praise of Black Performance At twelve years old Elamin Abdelmahmoud emigrates with his family from his native Sudan to Kingston Ontario arguably one of the most homogenous cities in North America At the airport he's handed his Blackness like a passport and realizes that he needs to learn what this identity means in a new country Like all teens Abdelmahmoud spent his adolescence trying to figure out who he was but he had to do it while learning to balance a new racial identity and all the false assumptions that came with it Abdelmahmoud learned to fit in and eventually became every liberal white dad's favorite person in the room But after many years spent trying on different personalities he now must face the parts of himself he's kept suppressed all this time He asks What happens when those identities stage a jailbreak In his debut collection of essays Abdelmahmoud gives full voice to each and every one of these conflicting selves Whether reflecting on how The O.C. taught him about falling in love why watching wrestling allowed him to reinvent himself or what it was like being a Muslim teen in the aftermath of 9/11 Abdelmahmoud explores how our experiences and our environments help us in the continuing task of defining who we truly are With the perfect balance of relatable humor and intellectual ferocity Son of Elsewhere confronts what we know about ourselves and most important what we're still learning
