

The background of the book cover is a light tan, textured surface. On the left, a person with short, spiky blonde hair, wearing a teal t-shirt and light blue jeans, is walking away from the viewer. In the upper center, a purple and yellow book lies flat on the ground, with the words 'MYSTERY HIGH' visible on its cover. To the right of the person, three green soda cans are scattered on the ground. In the bottom right corner, a black shoe is partially visible.

Myths, Legends, Rumors and Lies Eric Leckey, 2015-06-15 Life is a series of moments small and sometimes insignificant but rarely is life anything other than our collection of moments that we call stories We all have stories or if you don't think you do get together with some old friends sometime and have a drink or two you would be amazed at how quickly the memories come alive and you start to relive them again Life's most exciting moments and most treasured memories come alive again for you as the tales of your youth spill out for all to see The surest way to see into a person's true self is to peer into the stories that they hold most sacred As the storyteller gets deeper into their story and you see their eyes light up and their body language change you can see them transported back The stresses of modern day life and the walls and pretense that people surround themselves with crumble to the floor and that is when you can see the true them I believe everyone has these stories Athenaeum ,1872 "The" Athenaeum ,1897 The Truth Seeker ,1917 Saturday Review ,1872
