An overdraft is the act of writing a check for an amount greater than the balance of the account. With overdraft protection service, a financial institution will honor a check written by you even if it exceeds your account balance. Banks normally charge a $25 or higher fee for each overdraft. Customers can avoid overdrafts by managing their accounts well.

Although overdrafts are not encouraged, some banks offer overdraft protection. This involves automatically moving money from the customer's savings account to the checking account to cover the amount of the check. You can ask the bank about its policies as well as its fees or charges for this service.

Some financial institutions rent boxes in their vaults for the storage of valuables. Jewelry, birth records, insurance policies, and other important items are often kept in safe-deposit boxes. This is an important feature if you need a safe location for valuable or irreplaceable items. Rental charges for these boxes vary.
