Auto Maintenance—The formulation process and the blending of the colors. It is Partridge Basic Color that is manufactured to suit specific formulas will produce well-defined stretch film when printed by strong, single stroke. Colors are matched using magnetic vehicles and based on their degree of substrate changes to the formula.

Color Matching
Numerous factors, in addition to color, affect the durability of the film.
Color, too, is an important factor in film selection. For example, a film with a high color index
will fade more rapidly than a film
with a low color
index. The color
index is a measure
of the film's ability
to resist fading.
