

The 30 Second Elevator Speech

An elevator speech is a clear, brief message or “commercial” about you. It communicates who you are, what you’re looking for and how you can benefit a company or organization. It’s typically about 30 seconds, the time it takes people to ride from the top to the bottom of a building in an elevator. The idea behind having an elevator speech is that you are prepared to share this information with anyone, anytime, even in an elevator.) At a career fair, you can use your speech to introduce yourself to employers. It is important to have your speech memorized and practiced. Rehearse your 30 second elevator speech with a friend or in front of a mirror. The important thing is to practice it OUT LOUD. It should sound natural. Get comfortable with what you have to say so you can breeze through when the time comes.

This elevator speech is:

- absolutely not longer than 25 to 30 seconds
- or - in words - approximately 80 to 90 words
- or - in sentences - 8 to 10 sentences

A SAMPLE ELEVATOR SPEECH OUTLINE

These 10 speech topics will help to write a carefully planned and prepared presentation that grabs attention and says a lot in a few words. This format suggestion helps you to avoid creating a sales pitch. Use each idea to write one short powerful sentence.

ABOUT YOU

1. Smile to your counterpart, and open with a statement or question that grabs attention: a hook that prompts your listener to ask questions.
2. Tell who you are: describe you and your company.
3. Tell what you do and show enthusiasm.

Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong,Laura Saunders,2020-05-04 This revised and updated sixth edition of Reference and Information Services continues the book's rich tradition covering all phases of reference and information services with less emphasis on print and more emphasis on strategies and scenarios. Reference and Information Services is the go-to textbook for MSLIS and i School courses on reference services and related topics. It is also a helpful handbook for practitioners. Authors include LIS faculty and professionals who have relevant degrees in their areas and who have published extensively on their topics. The first half of the book provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision including the reference interview, ethics instruction, reader's advisory, and services to diverse populations including children. This part of the book establishes a foundation of knowledge on reference service and frames each topic with ethical and social justice perspectives. The second part of the book offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in-depth examination of information sources by type including dictionaries, encyclopedias, indexes, and abstracts as well as by broad subject areas including government statistics and data, health, and legal information. This second section introduces the tools and resources that reference professionals use to provide the services described in the first half of the text.

Crafting Qualitative Research Questions Elizabeth (Betsy) A. Baker, 2021-12-12 The essence of research design is the ability to articulate your research question. The research question is the precursor to the study, and a well-crafted question encapsulates all of the design elements for that study. Based on more than 20 years of conducting research, collaborating with colleagues to formulate research projects, and experience advising doctoral students, author Dr. Elizabeth Betsy A. Baker forged a research design heuristic which she introduces in this book. She starts by dissecting the anatomy of a qualitative research question, outlines the role of paradigms in research design describes strategies to use the anatomy as a design heuristic and provides sample cases that track the decisions two researchers made while formulating a qualitative question The book concludes with advice on how to move from the research question to the proposal Throughout the author provides handy worksheets that readers can complete as they work on crafting their own research question      The Indispensable Librarian Douglas A.
