

Jubilant as Class of 2023 Graduates

The University of Jeddah celebrated the graduation of the Class of 2023 on a grand scale, with thousands of graduates and their families gathered for the ceremony. The event was held in a large, ornate hall, where the graduates, dressed in traditional blue gowns and caps, were presented with their diplomas. The ceremony was a joyous occasion, filled with music, speeches, and a sense of accomplishment. The graduates, who have spent the past few years at the University of Jeddah, were congratulated by their families and friends. The ceremony was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the graduates and the support of the university.

New Funding Model to Streamline University Education - P5

The Ministry of Education has announced a new funding model for universities, aimed at streamlining education and improving the quality of teaching and learning. The new model will involve a shift from a traditional funding model to a more performance-based approach. This will allow universities to receive funding based on their academic achievements and the quality of their graduates. The Ministry of Education is committed to ensuring that universities have the resources they need to provide a high-quality education. The new funding model is expected to be implemented in the coming years.
