The Global Atlantic Christoph Strobel, 2015-02-11 The Global Atlantic provides a concise lively overview of the complex and diverse history of the greater Atlantic region from 1400 to 1900 During this period the lands around the Atlantic basin Europe Africa and the Americas became deeply interconnected in networks of trade cultural exchange and geopolitics that reshaped these regions and the world beyond In this accessible and engaging text Christoph Strobel integrates the Atlantic into world history showing that the Atlantic oceanic system was always interlinked with the rest of globe From the Mediterranean origins of slave worked sugar plantations to the Chinese demand for silver from American mines The Global Atlantic discusses key examples of these connections with clarity enabling students to understand how existing ideas and incentives shaped the emerging Global Atlantic and how these Atlantic systems in turn created the world we live in today

Taking Sides: Clashing Views in World History, Volume 1: The Ancient World to the Pre-Modern Era , Expanded Joseph Mitchell, 2009-03-27 Presents a collection of essays that debate issues associated to world history including male dominated societies in the ancient world the Crusades and Africa's role in human history

Places of Encounter, Volume 1 Aran MacKinnon, 2018-04-27 Places of Encounter provides a place based approach to world history focusing on specific locations at critical moments when human history was transformed as a result of encounters physical political cultural intellectual and religious Original contributed essays by leading academics in the field explore places from Hadar to Xi'an Salvador to New York and numerous other locations that have produced historical shockwaves and significant global impact throughout history With a chronologically organized table of contents each chapter dissects a particular moment in history with personal commentary from each contributor a narrative of the location's historical significance at the time and a section on significant global connections Primary sources and discussion questions at the end of each chapter allow students a view into the lives of individuals of the time Students will experience the narrative of historic individuals as well as modern scholars looking back over documentation to offer their own views of the past providing students with the perfect opportunity to see how scholars form their own views about history

World History

Candice Goucher, Linda Walton, 2013-07-24 World History Journeys from Past to Present uses common themes to present an integrated and comprehensive survey of human history from its origins to the present day By weaving together thematic and regional perspectives in coherent chronological narratives Goucher and Walton transform the overwhelming sweep of the human past into a truly global story that is relevant to the contemporary issues of our time Revised and updated throughout the second edition of this innovative textbook combines clear chronological progression with thematically focused chapters In this volume chapters are divided into three parts as follows PART 4 BRIDGING WORLDS 1300 1800 CE PART 5 TRANSFORMING LIVES 1500 1900 PART 6 FORGING A GLOBAL COMMUNITY 1800 Present The expanded new edition boasts an impressive full color design with a host of illustrations maps and primary source excerpts integrated throughout Chapter opening timelines supply context for the material ahead while end of chapter questions and annotated additional resources provide students with the tools for independent study Each chapter and part boasts introductory and summary essays that explain and guide the reader in comprehending the relevant theme In addition the companion website offers a range of resources including an interactive historical timeline an indispensable study skills section for students tips for teaching and learning thematically and PowerPoint slides lecture material and discussion questions in a password protected area for instructors This textbook provides a basic introduction for all students of World History while at the same time incorporating the thematic perspectives that encourage critical thinking link to globally relevant contemporary issues and stimulate further study

Places of Encounter, Volume 2 Aran MacKinnon, Elaine McClarnand MacKinnon, 2018-03-09 First Published in 2018 Using a place based approach by focusing on specific locations at critical historical moments of historical transformation Places of Encounter provides a unique alternative to world history anthologies or survey texts Students will experience the narrative of historic individuals as well as modern scholars looking back over documentation to offer their own views of the past providing students with the perfect opportunity to see how scholars form their own views about history This text can be purchased as two volumes providing a breadth of information for survey courses in world history

Encounters in Quest of Christian Womanhood Ulrike Sill,2010 This book offers a detailed study of how the practices and notions of the Basel Mission regarding women and gender were received conceptualised and negotiated in local terms in pre and early colonial Ghanaian societies 1843 1885 Recent Themes in World History and the History of the West Donald A. Yerxa,2009 New insights on global histories and Western civilization from leading scholars in the field Described as the New York Review of Books for history Historically Speaking has emerged as one of the most distinctive historical publications in recent years actively seeking out contributions from a pantheon of leading voices in historical discourse from both inside and outside academia Recent Themes in World History and the History of the West represents some of the best writing on Western civilization and world history in the past five years This collection of essays and interviews from Historically Speaking gives leading historians approaches to the continually evolving field of world history with a specific emphasis on the relationship of Western civilization to the history of the world The book also discusses the effect of empire on global history and the many ways empire continues to manifest in the contemporary world The contributors discuss world history as an intricate story of the connections within the global community rather than a tidy static narrative that attempts to summarize everything in our global past In this volume the study of world history is presented as a constantly comparative endeavor concerned with the major themes that link and divide humanity Ways of the World: A Global History with Sources Robert W. Strayer,2012-12-28 Ways of the World is one of the most successful and innovative new textbooks for world history in recent years This 2 in 1 textbook and reader includes a brief by design narrative that is truly global and focuses on significant historical trends themes and developments in world history Author Robert W Strayer a pioneer in the world history movement with years of classroom experience provides a thoughtful and insightful synthesis that helps students see the big picture Following each chapter s narrative are collections of primary written and visual sources organized around a particular theme issue or question so that students can consider the evidence the way historians do Ways of the World is now integrated with LearningCurve online adaptive quizzing that reinforces students reading Also available in number of affordable print and digital editions including an edition without sources Two Worlds Collide: Europe's Encounter With the Americas , Definitive Encounters Muzaffar Iqbal,2008 Teaching World History: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp,2015-03-04 A resource book for teachers of world history at all levels The text contains individual sections on art gender religion philosophy literature trade and technology Lesson plans reading and multi media recommendations and suggestions for classroom activities are also provided The European Outthrust and Encounter David B. Quinn,Cecil H. Clough,P. E. H. Hair,Paul Edward Hedley Hair,1994-01-01 For half a century David Beers Quinn wrote on the history of the early relationship between England and North America This volume was presented in tribute to his meticulous and authoritative but cautious scholarship on the occasion of his 85th birthday It includes his Reflections on a lifetime of research and his bibliography But his interests in the early period of the expansion of Europe have never been limited to England or North America and this volume accordingly takes as its theme the widest historical context of the subject and period the whole European outthrust and encounter in its first phase Ten contributions by recognized scholars provide select exemplars to serve as a stimulating introduction to this vast theme Three overview essays deal with specific regions of the outthrust chosen because of differences in outcome Ethiopia the Far East and Siberia The remaining essays consider specific episodes in localities ranging from Guayana to China and their discursive echoes and are essentially concerned with a leading feature of David Quinn's scholarship the discovery examination and interpretation of sources A preliminary essay discusses the theme and links the various contributions within a framework of critical generalization

A Companion to World History Douglas Northrop, 2014-12-15 A COMPANION TO WORLD HISTORY This new volume offers insightful reflections by both leading and emerging world historians on approaches methodologies arguments and pedagogies of a sub discipline that has continued to be in flux as well as in need of defining itself as a relevant alternative to the traditional national regional or chronological fields of inquiry Choice The focus on the practicalities of how to do world history probably gives it its edge Its thirty three chapters are grouped into sections that address how to set up research projects in world history how to teach it how to get jobs in it how to frame it and how it is done in various parts of the globe It is an actual handbook in other words as opposed to a sample of exemplary work English Historical Review A Companion to World History offers a comprehensive overview of the variety of approaches and practices utilized in the field of world and global history This state of the art collection of more than 30 insightful essays including contributions from an international cast of leading world historians and emerging scholars in the field identifies continuing areas of contention disagreement and divergence while pointing out fruitful directions for further discussion and research Themes and topics explored include the lineages and trajectories of world history key ideas and methods employed by world historians the teaching of world history and how it draws upon and challenges traditional approaches and global approaches to writing world history By considering these interwoven issues of scholarship and pedagogy from a transnational interregional and world global scale fresh insights are gained and new challenges posed With its rich compendium of diverse viewpoints A Companion to World History is an essential resource for the study of the world's past

Agricultural and Pastoral Societies in Ancient and Classical History Michael Adas, 2001 Introduces readers to the cross cultural study of ancient and classical civilizations The book is divided into two sections the first examining the ongoing interaction between ancient agrarian and nomadic societies and the second focusing on regional patterns in the dissemination of ideas

Sources of Crossroads and Cultures, Volume II: Since 1300 Bonnie G. Smith, 2012 Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran. The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought. He also studies Muslim Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals: Abdol Karim Soroush, Mostafa Malekian and Mojtaba Shabestari. Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post revolution Iran, Tavassoli relates concrete religious cultural and socio political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi'ite Islam Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world.
