An Analysis of Kindergarten & Elementary Report Cards D. Keith Osborn, Janie Dyson Osborn, 1989      Reporting Pupil Progress Linda H. Kunder, Paul J. Porwoll, 1977      Exploring Inclusive Educational Practices Through Professional Inquiry

Gordon L. Porter, Déirdre Smith, 2012-01-01 Practitioners scholars and teacher education students alike can celebrate reading Exploring Inclusive Educational Practices through Professional Inquiry This rich array of case scenarios both illuminates and elaborates the meaning of inclusion in today s schools and tomorrow s visions Twenty five stories from parents teachers school principals and specialists highlight the kind of experiential knowledge that won t be found in typical research reports and district documents about inclusive education What happens to real people students and their families doesn't always resemble policies that can look so good on paper This book makes a wonderful contribution to better understandings of the challenges of inclusion as well as the commitments positioned alongside values in order to meet those challenges There are brave and spirited people in these pages not the least of whom are the children themselves Professor Luanna H Meyer PhD Director Jessie Hetherington Centre for Educational Research Victoria University New Zealand This is a book on inclusive education that leaves you with hope and ideas for action It takes a very difficult and highly charged topic and demonstrates that it is possible to see both the trees and the forest Michael Fullan Professor Emeritus OISE University of Toronto We are reminded in the commentaries parents share in this book of how their passionate commitment to good education and their ideas make inclusion work The case study approach reveals the critical importance of their and many other perspectives in finding solutions to what are so often dismissed as irresolvable dilemmas They aren't and this book models exactly the kinds of conversations we need in schools across the country to challenge all of us to stay the course It's a must read for anyone who wants to make diversity and inclusion a reality in public education today Michael Bach Executive Vice President Canadian Association for Community Living Resources in Education, 1997-10 Baseline Report for the Spanish-English Longitudinal Study, 1982 Affirming Black Students' Lives and Literacies Arlette Ingram Willis, Gwendolyn Thompson McMillon, Patriann Smith, 2022 Drawing on the authors' experiences as Black parents, researchers, teachers, and teacher educators, this timely book presents a multipronged approach to affirming Black lives and literacies The authors believe change is needed not within Black children but in the way they are perceived and educated, particularly in reading, writing, and critical thinking across grade levels To inform literacy teachers and school leaders, the authors provide a conceptual framework for reimagining literacy instruction based on Black philosophical and theoretical foundations, historical background, literacy research, and authentic experiences of Black students This important book includes counternarratives about the lives of Black learners, research conducted by Black scholars among Black students, examples of approaches to literacy with Black children that are making a difference, conversations among literacy researchers that move beyond academia, and a model for engaging all students in literacy Affirming Black Students' Lives and Literacies advocates for adopting a standard of care that will improve and support literacy achievement among today's Black students by rejecting deficit presumptions and embracing the fullness of these students' strengths Book Features A counternarrative of Black literacy history, lives, and learners Narrative examples of Black literacy scholarship by Black scholars who embrace their faith walk as an integral part of their holistic approach to literacy teaching and learning Discussion questions to spur conversations among school administrators, parents, caregivers, politicians, reading researchers, teacher educators, and classroom teachers An array of extant Black scholarship that should inform literacy praxis and research A conceptual framework CARE that is applicable for all learners with a focus on Black literacy learners Teacher

Research Deborah Roberts, Claire Bove, 2007 If you're a science teacher this collection will show you paths that others have found to deepen their understanding of the philosophy and practice of teacher research If you're a science teacher educator it will give you examples about the many ways in service teachers can conduct inquiry Either way Teacher Research provides a memorable passage into learning and growing

Ready for What? M. Elizabeth Graue, 1993-01-01 This book looks at readiness from a different perspective arguing that we must move away from the readiness as child characteristic so prevalent in education and the popular press Instead readiness is explained as an idea constructed by parents teachers and children as they interact in their neighborhoods and communities Graue describes three communities in the same school district a middle class suburban town of professionals a rural working class community and a group of Hispanic working class families making their way through their children's kindergarten experiences In each setting the local meaning of readiness is the underlying theme in the actions taken by parents and their attitudes about their children's first public school experience

Raising Frankie Brenda B. Moody, 2022-03-09 As a college student he was blessed to become a student intern in the Information Technology IT department where he continued to increase his computer skills as a part time computer lab assistant and a computer troubleshooter These roles pushed his skills to a brand new level After the internship was over I followed my instructor everywhere he went so I could learn everything I could I even stayed after hours to glean from his knowledge His instructor told him that he had never met anyone like him before Someone who was hungry for knowledge After graduating with a degree in computer science he was offered a part time job in the IT department That job later became full time As a contributing co author to Raising Frankie he visited his parents twice a week to proofread and suggest any changes he felt were necessary They wanted to make sure he was comfortable with every line before it went to publication Since he has embraced the book the three of us hope readers will share its content to assist anyone they know who is or has dealt with ADHD Brenda is a retired educator who lives with her husband in North Carolina During her academic career she served in several capacities in the educational arena These positions included teaching academically gifted to disadvantaged and handicapped students in high school high school assistant principal and supervisor director of Career Technical Education Programs She has also taught on the community college level In her community she serves on several church auxiliaries to include serving as a deaconess member of the senior usher board and as a Sunday school teacher Because of her experiences working with attention deficit hyperactive disorder ADHD via students and their teachers she wanted to share her knowledge and experiences with others through Raising Frankie She hopes that loving and living this work will positively impact the lives of others as it has the Moody family Frankie L Moody Sr Moody coauthor is a United States Army Veteran and a retired lieutenant with the North Carolina State Highway Patrol Presently he is actively serving as a church deacon president of the male ushers Security Team member Cub Scout Den Leader and as a literacy tutor for adults with Triangle South Literacy Works He also is employed part time to transport people to and from medical appointments In his years of working with people Moody often imparted words of wisdom and encouragement whenever the opportunity presented itself Brenda and Moody worked passionately together to first of all understand the characteristics of ADHD Secondly to embrace Frankie s diagnosis so they could help him to deal with whatever he may have encountered academically as well as socially during his formative years Toward that end Moody spent his days off each week serving as a teacher assistant s when Frankie was in elementary school He also chaperoned every field trip and assisted with all of his sport activities During high school we worked together as a team to support Frankie as needed to include how to handle unwarranted bullying During high school and college we realized that Frankie needed space to make his own decisions With that said we were always available and ready to activate whatever actions as were necessary to help Frankie to be successful without encroaching on his I can do it on my own abilities
