Boyer, 1996-06 The High Profile Black Republican Candidacies of Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele, Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and Hall of Famer Lynn Swann James White, 2019-05-31 Specifically the purpose of this study is to evaluate the impact of three statewide black Republican candidacies in 2006 in Maryland Ohio and Pennsylvania During the 2006 midterm election cycle the Republican Party recruited and gave strong support to three high profile African American statewide candidates Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and former Pittsburgh Steelers star and television sports broadcaster Lynn Swann campaigned for their state s governorship in Ohio and Pennsylvania respectively Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele vied for a vacated United States Senate seat in Maryland After five decades of miserable levels of support from black voters and numerous initiatives to increase its share of the African American electorate the GOP estimated that credible black Republican candidacies would substantially improve its image among African American voters and thus garner a larger share of the black vote State Representative James White Model-Minority Imperialism Victor Bascara, At the beginning of the twentieth century soon after the conclusion of the Spanish American War the United States was an imperialistic nation maintaining often with the assistance of military force a far flung and growing empire After a long period of collective national amnesia regarding American colonialism in the Philippines and elsewhere scholars have resurrected the power of empire as a way of revealing American history and culture Focusing on the terms of Asian American assimilation and the rise of the model minority myth Victor Bascara examines the resurgence of empire as a tool for acknowledging and understanding the legacy of American imperialism Model Minority Imperialism links geopolitical dramas of twentieth century empire building with domestic controversies of U S racial order by examining the cultural politics of Asian Americans as they are revealed in fiction film and theatrical productions Tracing U S economic and political hegemony back to the beginning of the twentieth century through works by Jessica Hagedorn R Zamora Linmark and Sui Sin Far discourses of race economics and empire found in the speeches of William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan as well as L Frank Baum s The Wonderful Wizard of Oz and other texts Bascara s innovative readings uncover the repressed story of U S

imperialism and unearth the demand that the present empire reckon with its past Bascara deploys the analytical approaches of both postcolonial studies and Asian American studies two fields that developed in parallel but have only begun to converge to reveal how the vocabulary of empire reasserted itself through some of the very people who inspired the U S imperialist mission Victor Bascara is assistant professor of English and Asian American studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison
