SECTION A – COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Teaching your children not to litter is a valuable life lesson.

I can no longer simply drive past children who drop their chip packets, cold drink cans and, sometimes entire fast-food packaging, as they walk home from school. Something inside me snaps and I tend to stop my car, interrogate them, and demand they pick up after themselves.

"Why did you throw that down in the street, when there's a rubbish bin a metre from where you dropped it?" I yell. The guilty 10-year-old glares at me as though I am insane or dangerous – perhaps I look it?

Curiously, it seems the whole idea of putting discarded wrappers into a bin designed for that purpose is a foreign concept to many of them. When pressed to answer my question, some of the responses have left me flabbergasted. "But I am creating jobs," said one indignant little litter-lout!

And it's not a stab in the dark to conclude that children like him are only doing what children everywhere do best: following the example set by their parents and caregivers in their lives. But attitudes like this are extremely dangerous. According to Alderman Clive Justus, Cape Town's Mayoral Committee Member for Utility Services, there seems to be a growing tolerance by the public, not only of litter, but of those responsible for it. What's more, this attitude is increasingly threatening the city's rating by international tourism organisations as one of the world's most beautiful cities and desirable holiday destinations, as residents continue to dump refuse illegally and indiscriminately fill our outdoor public spaces with litter.

"Children need to develop a sense of responsibility for themselves, others and the world in which they live in order to be contributing members of society," explains Johannesburg – based educational psychologist Melanie Hartgill.

China's IP related institutions are included with detailed attention to procedural matters. Brief historical notes in each chapter feature the most significant changes in each amendment of law and regulation. Because in China the laws are supplemented and interpreted by numerous guidelines and circulars issued by ministries or courts, the up to date knowledge and awareness provided in this new edition is essential for all companies investing in China or considering such investment as well as for practitioners counselling their clients on strategies. In addition, officials and policymakers involved in trade or other relations with China will benefit from a comprehensive update of what the current law is and a critical view of what the challenges are. The 2021 IPLCN is a recommended read for those who seek a well written English textbook which covers the main principles of Chinese IP Law. Clearly outlined, it is probably one of the best of its kind on the market. Its existence is welcome and necessary in the current era where languages are still obstacles. By Tian Lu. CRPF Head Constable (Ministerial) & ASI (Steno) Exam (English Edition) - 7 Full Length Mock Tests and 5 Sectional Tests with Free Access to Online Tests EduGorilla Prep Experts, The Himalayan Face-Off Shishir Gupta, 2014-04-15. Even if bilateral trade between India and China goes beyond 100 billion in the coming years, China's posture towards India is adversarial and will perhaps remain so in the future with Beijing viewing New Delhi through the prism of the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan government in exile. A rising China inflexible on boundary dispute resolution and with strong tentacles across South Asia and beyond could encroach on India's strategic space and lead to a potential crisis this decade. In April 2013, Indian troops sighted an advance patrol of the Chinese People's Liberation Army (PLA) 19 km deep within Indian territory, a considerable distance from the Line of Actual Control, the de facto border claim line that was drawn up after the 1962 war between the two countries a war that still traumatizes the mind of India's political and military establishment. Protracted negotiations led to the withdrawal of Chinese troops but the incursion laid bare the intent of the world's largest standing army. Despite recent advances in the bilateral relationship highlighted by the nearly 70 billion trade between the two countries, China continues to regard Indian interests as secondary and India as a regional adversary. In this breakthrough work, seasoned journalist and author of the bestselling Indian Mujahideen, Shishir Gupta details the various advances made by Beijing, particularly the PLA in encircling India and stifling the latter's bid to break out as an aspiring superpower. Gupta discusses Indian political, diplomatic and military responses to China's assertion in the subcontinent and beyond and the various course corrections India must undergo in its foreign and defence policies to counter China's might and influence on matters of India's national security. In describing how India must realize and counter China's clout over its friends and enemies if it is to achieve superpower status, Gupta sheds new light on Indo-China relations. The Himalayan Face Off: Chinese Assertion and the Indian Riposte is an important reminder of the realigned geopolitics of the modern world where the two most populous nations on the planet are essentially battling each other over their share of the global pie, sometimes on the world's highest battlegrounds. — Puja (CTET & TETs) English Language & Pedagogy (Paper I & II) Book (Super TET/HPTET/HTET/REET/PTET/MPTET/UTET/CGTET) Y.P.
