- English 11 Literary Analysis – Literature Unit – Phase 1

- Due _____

In a clearly worded and well-organized essay of about 800-1000 words, (4-5 double-spaced pages) of original writing, respond to the topics below. Your essay will likely be 5-6 paragraphs long. (12 point Times New Roman font)

Grade 11 English “Inquiry into Human Interaction” Essay topics

The stories you have read have delved into the way humans act with each other, machines, or both. From this several “angles” may be explored by which to analyze these literary works. You must use MLA format and employ all the “mechanics” of writing that enable you to construct a good introduction with a thesis, to a body, and a conclusion. (See your handouts and ppt. presentations in class, etc.)

1. The use of satire as a main literary element. (How did it work? Effectiveness?)
2. The use of suspense as a main literary element. (How did it work? Effectiveness?)
3. Discuss the authors’ “tone” within specific works and how it is delivered. (Example: authors’, narrators’, or characters’ voice) This is a little more difficult than it looks – check with me for a thorough understanding before starting this one.
4. Compare and/or contrast the “styles” of particular authors we have studied. (What worked in one case that may or may not work for the other!)
5. Character development in each story. What did various characters show us about ourselves on a more universal level?
6. Authors’ use of irony in specific texts. Was this an effective tool in a given story? Explain.

At all times make every effort to employ literary terminology in as many instances as possible. You may use terminology from the handout given to you or outside that proverbial “box” if it is right and precise to do so. Choose a topic that you feel you can handle the best.

Learning Targets

English 11 students will be able to explore, interpret, and reflect on their experiences with a range of texts and issues. This includes expressing their feelings, and reflecting on experiences that have shaped their ideas, values, and attitudes. Students will commit to crafting a range of pieces of writing, and use information from various sources to construct and communicate meaning. They will develop control of the I do not want you to consult outside sources to write this essay. I want you to think about the novel using your own brain! If you do consult outside sources, be sure to cite them using MLA format. Failure to do so may result in a grade of zero and an office referral. You may also lose points simply because you relied too heavily on outside sources.
