The Aesthetic Life of Cyril Scott Sarah Collins,2013 Literary Circles and Gender in Early Modern Europe Julie Campbell,2018-01-18 A comparative analysis this study examines the interactions of early modern male and female writers within the context of literary circles In particular Campbell examines how the querelle des femmes as a discursive rhetorical tradition of praise and blame influenced perceptions of well educated women who were part of literary circles in Italy France and England from approximately 1530 to 1650 To gain a better sense of how querelle language and issues were used for or against learned women writers Campbell aligns selected works by female and male writers pairing them to analyze how the woman writer responds deflects or rewrites the male writer s ideological script on women She focuses first on the courtesan Tullia d Aragona s response in her Dialogo della infinit di amore to Sperone Speroni s Dialogo di amore and contrasts the actress writer Isabella Andreini s pastoral La Mirtilla with Torquato Tasso s Aminta She then discusses the influence of Italian actresses upon the manners and mores of French women of the Valois court especially focusing on performative aspects of French women s participation in court and salon rituals To that end she examines the influential salon of the aristocratic learned Claude Catherine de Clermont duchesse de Retz who encouraged the writing of positive querelle rhetoric in the form of Petrarchan Neoplatonic encomiastic poetry to buttress her reputation and that of her female friends Next Campbell reads Louise Lab D t de Folie et d Amour against Pontus de Tyard s Solitaire premier to illustrate the tensions between a traditional and nontraditional querelle stance She then discusses Continental influence upon English writers in the context of the Sidney circle in England Moving to the closet dramas of the Sidney circle Campbell examines the solidarity these writers demonstrated with nontraditional stances on querelle issues and finally she explores how three generations of English literary circles con

Circles of Learning Jenny Mander,1999 By according a central place to the history of reading Circles of learning radically rethinks the nature of first person narrative during this period and reconsiders its relation to the autobiographical discourse Jenny Mander argues that to understand better both the history of the novel and that of the autobiography we need first to examine the position of the modern reader The study begins with a critical analysis of Genettian narratology in order to foreground a number of important presuppositions of twentieth century reading practices and it goes on to show how these have shaped modern criticism of past texts Through a detailed examination of eighteenth century prefatory discourse and Marivaux s concept of personal style as put forward in his journalistic writings Jenny Mander demonstrates how twentieth century interpretations can be brought into question by the eighteenth century novel itself Adducing models of good reading promoted by pedagogic literature and art as well as by specific scenes of reading within many novels she is able to ground an alternative analysis of Marivaux s Paysan parvenu and Prevost s Memoires d un homme de qualite in the practices of eighteenth century readers drawing further support from contemporary reviews This challenging study concludes by showing not only how Prevost s writing sets these practices in yet clearer relief but also how he points to and participates in their transformation Offering a fresh perspective on first person narrative at a formative moment in the history of the French novel Circles of leaning will interest scholars and theorists of modern prise fiction and autobiography aas well as tose specialising in eighteenth century literature

Manuscript Matters Lara M. Crowley,2018-08-24 Manuscript Matters illuminates responses to some of John Donne s most elusive texts by his contemporary audiences Since examples of seventeenth century literary criticism prove somewhat rare and frequently ambiguous this book emphasizes a critical framework rarely used for exhibiting early readers exegeses of literary texts the complete manuscripts containing them Many literary manuscripts that include poems by Donne and his contemporaries were compiled during their lifetimes often by members of their circles For this reason and because various early modern poems and prose works satirize topical events and prominent figures in highly coded language attempting to understand early literary interpretations proves challenging but highly valuable. Compilers scribes owners and other readers men and women who shared in Donne's political religious and social contexts offer clues to their literary responses within a range of features related to the construction and subsequent use of the manuscripts. This study's findings call us to investigate more extensively and systematically how certain early manuscripts were constructed through analysis of such features as scripts titles sequence of contents ascriptions and variant diction. While such studies can throw light on many early modern texts exploring artefacts containing Donne's works proves particularly useful because more of his poetry circulated in manuscript than did that of any other early modern poet. Manuscript Matters engages Donne's satiric lyric and religious poetry as well as his prose paradoxes and problems. Analysing his texts within their manuscript contexts enables modern readers to interpret Donne's poetry and prose through an early modern lens.
