Two Years in the Lives of Two English Teachers Bob Fecho, Dawan Coombs, Trevor Thomas Stewart, Rachel Knecht, Emelio DiSabato, 2024-02-26 This book invites readers to explore the complexity of becoming a teacher through the stories of two novice ELA teachers Emelio and Rachel over the course of their first two years The authors detailed empathetic and ethnographic approach allows space for the teachers to reveal little seen and often overlooked wobble moments These moments illuminate the complexity and nuances that confront confound and compel teachers to remain in dialogue with practice Documenting the journeys of two teachers with compassion and intellectual rigor this book provides insights into and challenges preconceived notions of what it means to be a teacher It is essential reading for preservice teachers scholars and researchers in English education as well as individuals considering teaching as a profession Curriculum

Development for Students with Mild Disabilities , Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhouse,Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute The Journal of

Geography ,1920 Teaching English to the World George Braine,2014-04-08 Teaching English to the World History Curriculum and Practice is a unique collection of English language teaching ELT histories curricula and personal narratives from non native speaker NNS English teachers around the world No other book brings such a range of international ELT professionals together to describe and narrate what they know best The book includes chapters from Brazil China Germany Hong Kong Hungary India Indonesia Israel Japan Lebanon Poland Saudi Arabia Singapore Sri Lanka and Turkey All chapters follow a consistent pattern describing first the history of English language teaching in a particular country then the current ELT curriculum followed by the biography or the autobiography of an English teacher of that country This consistency in the structuring of chapters will enable readers to assimilate the information easily while also comparing and contrasting the context of ELT in each country The chapter authors all born in or residents of the countries they represent and speakers of the local language or languages as well as English provide insider perspectives on the challenges faced by local English language teachers There is clear evidence that the majority of English teachers worldwide are nonnative speakers NNS and there is no doubt that many among them have been taught by indigenous teachers who themselves are nonnative speakers This book brings the professional knowledge and experience of these teachers and the countries they represent to a mainstream Western audience including faculty professionals and graduate students in the field of ESL to the international TESOL community and to ELT teachers around the world
