Purple, Green and Gold ,1925 No Slam Dunk Cheryl Cooky,Michael A. Messner,2018-05-30 In just a few decades sport has undergone a radical gender transformation However Cheryl Cooky and Michael A Messner suggest that the progress toward gender equity in sports is far from complete The continuing barriers to full and equal participation for young people the far lower pay for most elite level women athletes and the continuing dearth of fair and equal media coverage all underline how much still has yet to change before we see gender equality in sports The chapters in No Slam Dunk show that is this not simply a story of an unfinished revolution Rather they contend it is simplistic optimism to assume that we are currently nearing the conclusion of a story of linear progress that ends with a certain future of equality and justice This book provides important theoretical and empirical insights into the contemporary world of sports to help explain the unevenness of social change and how despite significant progress gender equality in sports has been No Slam Dunk It's All for the Kids Michael Messner,2009-03-18 Today in a world quite different from the one that existed just thirty years ago both girls and boys play soccer baseball softball and other youth sports Yet has the dramatic surge in participation by girls contributed to greater gender equality In this engaging study leading sociologist Michael A Messner probes the richly complex gender dynamics of youth sports Weaving together vivid first person interviews with his own experiences as a volunteer for his sons teams Messner finds that despite the movement of girls into sports gender boundaries and hierarchies still dominate especially among the adults who run youth sports His book widens into a provocative exploration of why youth sports matter how they play a profound role in shaping gender class family and community Pick of the Litter Bill Wallace,2006-06 Tom spends his summer vacation helping with his grandfather s hunting dog business Tom falls in love with one of the pups a rare blue eyed pointer but Grandpa has promised the owner of the pup s sire the pick of the litter What will Tom do

Communication, Sport and Disability Michael S. Jeffress, 2016-12-05 Sports are ubiquitous in American society and given their prominence in the culture it is easy to understand how most youth in the United States face pressure to participate in organized sports But what does this mean for the hundreds of thousands of Americans who live with one or more physical disabilities and in particular those in powered wheelchairs Located at the intersection of sports and disability this book tells the story of power soccer the first competitive team sport specifically designed for electric wheelchair users Beginning in France in the 1970s today over sixty teams compete within the United States Power Soccer Association USPSA and the sport is actively played in over thirty countries Using ethnographic research conducted while attending practices games and social functions of teams from across the nation Jeffress builds a strong case that electric wheelchair users deserve more opportunity to play sports They deserve it because they need the same physical and psychosocial benefits from participation as their peers who have full use of their arms and legs It challenges the social constructions and barriers that currently stand in the way Most importantly this book tells the story of some amazing power soccer athletes It is a moving first hand account of what power soccer means to them and the implications this has for society Gender Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn, Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Michael A. Messner, 2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street Annual Catalog Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Mo, 1929 Team Up!
