Teaching Literacy in Kindergarten Lea M. For the Love of Reading Nancy L. Baumann, 2013-10-17 This insightful book reviews the current research on literacy programming, examines the latest standards for strengthening reading skills, and provides educators, families, and caregivers methods for building successful reading habits in and out of the classroom. Research indicates that children need more than classroom instruction to become proficient readers. Unfortunately, few parents realize how simple everyday practices can build a lifelong love of reading. Educators diligent with employing mandatory literacy standards may overlook families and support systems as tools for improving student performance. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the various methods of reading instruction, analyzing the pedagogy behind Sustained Silent Reading (SSR), the importance of reading aloud to children, and the necessity of working the home-school connection. For the Love of Reading: Guide to K-8 Reading Promotions provides strategies and tips for setting up successful reading environments for children, including having a well-stocked library collection, engaging students through book clubs, reading lists, and prepared book talks, and involving student and adult volunteers. The author asserts that the entire school community—teachers, librarians, parents, caregivers, and administrators—must work together to promote literacy.

Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education, Self-Fulfilling Prophecy Robert T. Tauber, 1997-02-25 What we expect all too often is exactly what we get. Nowhere is this more true than in education where teachers' expectations of students are crucial. The self-fulfilling prophecy should be of great interest to teachers both those in training and those in service. Whether or not a teacher is aware of it, the self-fulfilling prophecy is at work impacting students either to their benefit or their detriment. It follows that teachers should be made aware of the SFP and how it can be used effectively in education. Using the new on-line research facilities, Dr. Tauber has compiled over 700 doctoral dissertations and countless journal articles on stereotyping, perception of social differences, race, gender, ethnicity, body features, age,
