O'Brien,1996 English Historical Linguistics 2008 Hans Sauer,Gaby Waxenberger,2012-08-09 The fifteen papers selected for Volume II of English Historical Linguistics 2008 have a different emphasis than those in Volume I CILT 314 Lenker et al 2010 Nine concentrate on the development of the English vocabulary and six on historical text linguistics including the development of text types and of politeness strategies Of those in the former group three have their emphasis on etymology three on semantic fields and three on word formation although some cover more than one of these areas The topics include the treatment of etymological problems in the OED deverbal derivations formed from native verbs and from loan verbs the role of metaphor and metonymy in the evolution of word fields The field of historical text linguistics is introduced by a general survey which is followed by more specific studies focussing on 15th century legal and administrative texts from Scotland on early 15th century women s mystical writings on medical recipes from the 16th to the 18th centuries and on pauper letters from 18th century Essex The book should appeal to scholars interested in English etymology the history of semantic fields and of word formation as well as in historical text linguistics politeness strategies and standardization It provides not only theoretical considerations but also a wealth of case studies
