

Activities for Tutoring a Pre-literate Student

The most important thing you can do to help a pre-literate student is to make reading meaningful. What matters to your student?

Language develops more quickly and deeply if students get a chance to talk about things that matter to them.

—Heide Spruck Wrigley

Vocabulary

Show me/Point to Use props or picture cards. Ask the student to point to various items. This is easier than naming them.

What's in the hat/bag?

Put props or picture cards in an opaque bag. The student takes them out, one at a time, and names each one.

Verbal Fill in the Blank

Give the student a sentence starter and ask the student to fill in the sentence with all the vocabulary words that he/she remembers. For example, "I am wearing ____"

Total Physical Response (TPR)

The idea behind TPR is to associate physical movement with language. First select a set of actions and language to go with them. Most likely, the language will be in command form. For example: Get out your paper. Pick up your pencil. Put down your pencil. Put away your paper. Here are the steps to follow:

1. Demonstrate the actions and say the language as you demonstrate (don't say anything other than the commands)
2. Repeat step one a couple more times
3. Say the language as the student performs the actions with you
4. Repeat step three a couple more times
5. Mix up the order of the actions to check comprehension
6. The Student can give the commands or to you (optional)

Miming actions with imaginary objects and picture cues is also an option.
