Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities The book is divided into two major parts the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances In turn the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real life consequences Taken together the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives

The Reluctant Wife

Bronwen Evans,2012-12-17 The Reluctant Wife by Bronwen Evans Abby Taylor walked out on her irresistible husband three years ago Now she has no choice but to return to Italy to ask him for a favor To pay for her grandmother s heart operation she needs his money but it comes with strings attached Conte Dante Lombardi has it all an Italian villa a successful family business and a noble title But he needs a child to carry on his legacy and time is running out He also hopes to satisfy the desire Abby rouses in him As Abby uncovers why he s in such a hurry for a child she falls in love with him again just as she realizes it might be impossible to keep her end of the deal Dominant Demand Linzi Basset,2022-08-05 Some say I am cold blooded They aren t wrong To some I am death They aren t wrong I am the Grim Reaper Razor aka Maxim Ivanov the newly promoted Boss of the National Crime Syndicate Kings Inc was known in the crime world as a cold blooded bastard an assassin with no heart Born to the world of violence and crime Razor embraced his destiny The path of his future had been set and over time he became the embodiment of death in all its forms Love didn t feature in his life Sex well that was an entirely different concept Indulging in kink was his favorite pastime and when the sassy socialite propositioned him at the Decadent Sins Club Master Hades proved why she should have run in the opposite direction Maia Wilson had been eyeing the brooding Russian since the first time she entered the club That he was the friend of her bestie s fianc placed him right where she wanted him within her grasp Except he was so much more dominant than she thought she could handle Soon she became the object of her own mystery and his enjoyment When Razor found out who was behind usurping the Mafia s power in the U S he was forced back to Moscow to face off against a man he hated with passion the one who had turned his heart completely black Compromise Formations Vera J. Camden,1989 These essays are collected from the Fourth International Conference on Literature and Psychology held at Kent State University 7 9 August 1987 In selecting the essays for this first collection to emerge from the varied conferences now being sponsored by the Kent State University Center for Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera Camden has brought together representative contributions from two major contemporary schools of psychoanalytic criticism object relations and Lacanian theory These essays define the questions which emerge when both schools are brought into the kind of association engendered by this conference offering not so much a resolution to opposing positions as a fuller articulation of the space each occupies and a fluidity of discussion which has characterized psychoanalysis since Freud s earliest discoveries Each contributor is concerned with the place of the unconscious in the determination of the human subject and its representations Whether the approach is primarily clinical or literary each identifies and analyzes the anguish of the incomplete self a self which looks to construct identify regain or even deny meaning A crucial difference emerges among these authors as to how the experience of human alienation and the quest for identify is to be analyzed Some would suggest after Jacques Lacan that the task of analysis is to recognize the illusion of the unitary self and to reconcile the individual to that state Others would contend the task of analysis is to recover by the transference relationship the lost unity missing in childhood and reflect in adult object relations These essays range from clinical perspectives in psychosis and creativity to critical readings of Joyce and Shakespeare to recent applications of brain research to traditional psychoanalytic notions of the human subject The richness and variety in this collection bear witness to the continuing impact of psychoanalysis on literary and cultural studies

Reading the Male Gaze in Literature and Culture James D. Bloom, 2017-10-06 This book examines the phenomenon of the male gaze a concept which has spread beyond academia and become a staple of cultural conversations across disciplinary boundaries Male gazing has typically been disparaged and even stigmatized as a reflection of misogyny and an instrument of objectification often justifiably so But as this book argues and illustrates male gazing can also be understood as an illuminating intellectually engaging aesthetically compelling and even politically progressive practice This study recounts how the author's own coming of age as a gazer became the basis for his long career teaching and writing about American fiction and poetry and poetry canonical and contemporary as well as about film painting TV and rock and roll It includes closely reasoned analyses of work by James Baldwin Rembrandt Willa Cather Philip Roth Henry James Charles Chesnutt Bob Dylan Robert Stone Tim O'Brien Edith Wharton Theodore Dreiser Frank O'Hara Italo Calvino John Schlesinger as well such cultural phenomena as the British Invasion of the 1960s the Judgment of Paris in Greek mythology the technology of seeing kaleidoscopes microscopes telescopes and the concept of objectification itself

Stirring the Greek Nation Ioannis Stefanidis, 2016-12-05 This work examines the background to Greek nationalist politics and its effects on public opinion towards international events and territorial claims from the end of the Second World War to the collapse of constitutional rule in 1967 It explains how intermittent public mobilisation on various foreign policy issues created a political culture that combined elements of nationalism religion race and stereotypes about the national Self and the Other The book challenges widely held assumptions that Greek irredentism was all but dead and buried in the aftermath of the Asia Minor catastrophe of 1922 and that anti Americanism was the product of US support for the Colonels regime of 1967 74 and its condoning of the Turkish occupation of northern Cyprus It begins with an examination of the revival of irredentism in connection with Greek national claims after 1945 and the two campaigns for the union of Cyprus with Greece during the 1950s and 1960s The second part of the study reveals anti Americanism to be largely the result of failed post war Greek territorial ambitions particularly the frustration of the Enosis claim rather than the actual intervention of the United States in Greek affairs Drawing on a huge variety of sources including the Greek press records of the Greek Parliament the US and British National Archives as well the archives of numerous individuals this book provides a fascinating account of Greek political culture and national self image at a crucial time in the country's political development
