

Rhetorical Devices

DIRECTIONS: Identify the rhetorical device being used in each quotation below.

We shall go on to the end, we shall fight in France,
We shall fight on the seas and oceans,
We shall fight with growing confidence and growing strength in the air,
We shall defend our Island whatever the cost may be,
We shall fight on the beaches,
We shall fight on the landing grounds,
We shall fight in the fields and in the streets,
We shall fight in the hills;
We shall never surrender.
— Winston Churchill

1. What is the rhetorical device? _____

Should I be elected President, it would be my intention to ask the ablest men in the country to make whatever sacrifice is required to bring to the Government a ministry of the best talents available, men with a single-minded loyalty to the national interest, men who would regard public office as a public trust. For no government is better than the men who compose it, and I want the best, and we need the best, and we deserve the best.
— John F. Kennedy

2. What is the rhetorical device? _____

3. What do these two rhetorical devices have in common?

4. Choose one of these passages. Can you rewrite it on a separate page without the rhetorical devices and still convey the same main message? How is what you have written different? Is it more or less effective? Explain.
