LANGUAGE AND EDUCATION POLICIES IN THE PHILIPPINES David Michael M. San Juan ,2023-01-01 This book is aimed at critiquing existing language and education policies through the lens of language advocates and typically politically sidelined education stakeholders and at the same time providing feasible policy recommendations to steer policies closer to grassroots aspirations of a multilingual country where our collective sense of nationhood and nationalism empowers us to reshape our education system for national development rather than the tired catchphrase of global competitiveness Such critiques and alternative perspectives are informed by available studies recent data and updated statistics This book is thus a handy introduction to 21st century language and education policies in the Philippines for both education stakeholders advocates administrators professionals and students

English Language Teaching and Teacher Education in East Asia Amy Bik May Tsui,2020-11-05 The spread of English is so much an integral part of globalization that it has become an essential global literacy skill In Asia this poses immense challenges to governments and English language teaching and teacher education professions as they attempt to meet this demand from students for a high level of English proficiency This volume examines English language education policies across ten Asian jurisdictions the corresponding teacher education policies and how these policies affect teachers and teacher educators Each chapter covers a different jurisdiction and is written by a scholar engaged in the implementation of government policies on English language and teacher education providing the reader with insiders perspectives It gives a fascinating glimpse into the remarkable similarities in the challenges posed to these countries and the critical issues that have emerged from the local responses despite their markedly different socioeconomic political cultural and historical backgrounds

Translation Studies in the Philippines Riccardo Moratto,Mary Ann G. Bacolod,2023-12-01 The contributors to this book examine the state development issues practices and approaches to translation studies in the Philippines The Philippines is a highly multilingual country with many indigenous languages and regional dialects spoken alongside foreign imports particularly English and Spanish Professor Moratto Professor Bacolod and their contributors analyse the different roles that translation plays across an extensive range of areas including disaster mitigation crisis communication gender bias marginalization of Philippine languages academe and views on sex gender and sexuality They look at a range of different types of translation from the translation of biblical texts to audio visual translation and machine translation Emphasising the importance of translation as an interdisciplinary field they use a variety of analytic lenses including anthropological linguistics language and culture studies semantics structural linguistics and performance arts among others A comprehensive resource for scholars and practitioners of translation as well as a valuable reference for scholars across a wider range of humanities and social science disciplines in examining the culture language and society of the Philippines

Global Perspectives on Education Research, Vol. II Liesel Ebersöhn,Ingrid Gogolin,2023-05-31 Presenting a wide range of new research from World Education Research Association WERA affiliated scholars pertaining to democracy and education this volume including topics such as school readiness in Mongolia high stakes teacher evaluation policy in Japan and family and community involvement in global educational advocacy This collection arrives at a time of extreme global challenges leaving researchers teachers students families and policymakers without a baseline of how to act react and be proactive to stem the chronic flow of disruption to global education systems These challenges require researchers worldwide to consider how evidence can support individuals and systems to buffer against extreme global health distress and conflict whilst simultaneously supporting the continued functioning of education systems and processes Such processes must allow students teachers leaders administrators and members of the educational communities to retain positive self esteem and maintain supportive relationships and systems that provide the appropriate conditions for such processes Global Perspectives on Education Research pulls together contributions from different contexts and cultures to distil vistas and research results that can enlighten a worldwide community of researchers education professionals and practitioners as well as policymakers and local national or supra national decision makers This text is also the ideal companion for educators and leaders alike as they navigate the uncertainty within global health and social justice
