The purpose of the Marketing Management proficiency exam is to assess your understanding of the principles and concepts of marketing management. The emphasis of the exam is on your knowledge of the subject matter and your ability to demonstrate your capability of applying marketing principles to the overall success of an organization. In preparing for this exam, it is strongly recommended that students refer back to any marketing texts they may have kept. If this is not possible, any editions of the following text books are recommended for refreshment.

Kotler, Armstrong

Kotler

Lamb, Hair, McDaniel

Perreault, McCarthy

Kerin, Berkowitz, Hartley, Rudelius

Boone, Kurtz

Principles of Marketing

Marketing Management

Marketing

Basic Marketing

Marketing

Contemporary Marketing

You should understand the concepts, assumptions, limitations, design, formulation, and interpretation of:

- A marketing plan
- Nature and sources of competition
- Critical strategic issues and environmental influences in marketing management
- Analysis of industry portfolios
- Strategic and tactical/operational paths that sustain market growth
- Market economics and behaviors
- Market share, market potential and market demand
- Market segmentation
- Positioning strategies
- Pricing strategies
- Channel strategies
- Integrated marketing communications management
- New product and service development and product life cycle management
- Globalization
- Internet marketing

Specifically the exam will:

- be presented in essay/short answer form requiring sound writing ability in order to precisely and concisely communicate your understanding and application of marketing principles;
- require you to answer some of the questions but also enable you to choose from others;
- require your knowledge of marketing from a holistic view;
- will not require you to conduct mathematical calculations.
