intensifying the competition for qualified workers And yet many companies continue to recruit and screen talent like it was still 1970 In Recruiting in the Age of Googlization Ira S Wolfe exposes the realities of automation on the future of jobs and the rapid reconstruction of the concept of work Wolfe illuminates with his down to earth writing style how exponential change will transform or eliminate most jobs and make many business models irrelevant or unrecognizable Wolfe s examples read like science fiction jumping off the pages of everyday reality His forecasts and solutions are simultaneously exciting and terrifying It is within this new business environment that organizations must learn to recruit and retain talent Whether you re responsible for Human Resources or management or the average worker or student wondering what s next for his or her career Recruiting in the Age of Googlization is a thought provoking compelling read Recruiting in the Age of Googlization provides a blueprint for a recruitment process that works in any organization The solution is built on a framework of best practices that will surely help organizations recruit select manage and retain the talent they need The book will inspire new ideas spark pivotal conversations and challenge existing assumptions about business and help lay out a game plan to make change work     The Googlization of Everything Siva Vaidhyanathan,2012-03-13 Unlike other books on the history of Google this is a sharp attack on some of Googles initiatives and a broad rumination about its impact on all of our lives from a young blogger and tech expert     A Geezer's Guide to Living with Geeks Jim Ellis,2017-04-14 For a small operation my household of four has a relatively large IT department 75% of the people living here are highly qualified technology loving geeks That would include everyone except me the resident geezer The problem seems to be my electro magnetic personality Maybe you ve heard stories about people like me whose aura can disrupt electrical devices Sort of like solar flares Some people cause lights to turn on and off Others cause watches to go haywire Apparently my aura causes electronics of all types to get silly Here s a collection of the hilarious things that seem to happen all the time around my house     Geeks Jon Katz,2009-07-01
