Streetfight Janette Sadik-Khan,Seth Solomonow,2017-03-07 Like a modern day Jane Jacobs Janette Sadik Khan transformed New York City s streets to make room for pedestrians cyclists buses and green spaces Describing the battles she fought to enact change Streetfight imparts wisdom and practical advice that other cities can follow to make their own streets safer and more vibrant As New York City s transportation commissioner Janette Sadik Khan managed the seemingly impossible and transformed the streets of one of the world s greatest toughest cities into dynamic spaces safe for pedestrians and cyclists Her approach was dramatic and effective Simply painting a part of the street to make it into a plaza or bus lane not only made the street safer but it also lessened congestion and increased foot traffic which improved the bottom line of businesses Real life experience confirmed that if you know how to read the street you can make it function better by not totally reconstructing it but by reallocating the space that s already there Breaking the street into its component parts Streetfight demonstrates with step by step visuals how to rewrite the underlying source code of a street with pointers on how to add protected bike paths improve crosswalk space and provide visual cues to reduce speeding Achieving such a radical overhaul wasn t easy and Streetfight pulls back the curtain on the battles Sadik Khan won to make her approach work She includes examples of how this new way to read the streets has already made its way around the world from pocket parks in Mexico City and Los Angeles to more pedestrian friendly streets in Auckland and Buenos Aires and innovative bike lane designs and plazas in Austin Indianapolis and San Francisco Many are inspired by the changes taking place in New York City and are based on the same techniques Streetfight deconstructs reassembles and reinvents the street inviting readers to see it in ways they never imagined      Story and Sustainability Barbara Eckstein,James A.

Throgmorton,2003-05-23 Story and Sustainability explores the role of story in planning theory and practice with the goal of creating U S cities able to balance competing claims for economic growth environmental health and social justice In the book urban practitioners and scholars from fields as diverse as American studies English geography history planning and criminal justice reflect critically on the traditional exclusionary power of storytelling and on its potential to facilitate the transformations of imagination theory and practice necessary to create sustainable democratic American cities The book begins with an editors introduction identifying story sustainable U S cities and democracy as the three key themes Part I advances and refines these concepts connects them to contemporary U S urban planning and provides tools that can be used when reading and interpreting the texts in part II Part II exemplifies amplifies and modifies the key themes and arguments through the presentation of eight texts theoretical and experiential academic and nonacademic expository and narrative and familiar and unfamiliar The combined focus on story and urban sustainability makes this book a unique contribution to planning literature      A Moral Art Paul F. Gehl,2019-05-15 Focusing on one distinctive element of the early Renaissance reading public boys who studied Latin grammar in Florence Paul F Gehl sheds new light on the history of schooling in the West Far from advancing the cause of humanism he shows the elementary grammar masters of fourteenth century Florence worked against it in the name of morality      An Urban Approach To Climate Sensitive Design Rohinton

Emmanuel,2012-08-06 The need to respond to the rapidly changing city climate is particularly urgent in the tropics where the urban transition is currently at its peak While the need is clearly felt by the tropical urban dwellers texts that provide an overview of the problem and indicate possible design solutions are rare This comprehensive reference will be welcomed by student and practising architects as well as other built environment professionals engaged with the environmental effects of building in worldwide warm and humid climates      Evaluation Report ,1989
