Architectures of Life and Death Andrej Radman,Stavros Kousoulas,2021-06-17 Driven by the Foucauldian attitude of subsuming architectural history into a genealogy of techne Architectures of Life and Death advances a transdisciplinary approach rethinking subjectivity and exploring the political ramifications of these processes for the discipline of architecture and beyond In contrast to mainstream approaches architecture will not be seen as representative of culture but as the mechanism of culture the collective equipment that rests on the reciprocal determination of social habits and technological habitats In this sense the idea that we shape our environments therefore they shape us is not to be taken as a metaphor The animate has always been utterly dependent on the inanimate A livable habitat is one which the inhabitant actively co evolves with and which does not constitute a ready made condition to which the inhabitant would simply have to passively adapt Phenomenology in Adaptation Planning Hendricus Andy Simarmata,2017-08-23 This book explores the planning knowledge that can be gleaned from the experiences of the urban poor a group frequently affected by floods Further it examines the relationship between lifeworld analysis and adaptation planning through the sociology of knowledge which plays a significant part in determining the adaptation pathway of the urban poor The book brings together empirical data to translate self reflective planning theory into the practical context examines community planning and enriches the discourse on urban adaptation Lastly it provides an adaptation planning model that can benefit academics practitioners and policymakers who wish to provide more socially accepted plans Nuclear Safety ,1993
