Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura, Kerry Zukus, 2014 The story of what happened in the Hotel des Mille Collines during Rwanda's genocide in 1994 as told by Edouard Kayihura one of the survivors of the incident Kayihura and other hotel refugees do not endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events as seen in the 2004 movie Hotel Rwanda      Uncompromised Nada Prouty, 2011-11-08 Nada Prouty served her country loyally with distinction and as universally acknowledged by her colleagues with great personal courage as a CIA covert officer This tale of rampant trampling of citizen's rights is a vivid reminder of the responsibility of citizens to be vigilant against unaccountable government overreach if we hope to keep a strong democracy where the rule of law prevails and where a citizen is presumed innocent until proven guilty Valerie Plame author of Fair Game When Nada Prouty came to the United States as a young woman she fell in love with the democracy and freedom of her new home After a childhood in war torn Lebanon with an abusive father and facing the prospect of an arranged marriage she jumped at the chance to forge her own path in America a path that led to exciting undercover work in the FBI then the CIA As a leading agent widely lauded by her colleagues she worked on the most high profile terrorism cases in recent history including the hunt for Saddam Hussein and the bombing of the USS Cole often putting her life on the line and usually getting her man But all this changed in the wake of 9/11 at the height of anti Arab fervor when federal investigators charged Prouty with passing intelligence to Hezbollah Lacking sufficient evidence to make their case in court prosecutors went to the media suggesting that she had committed treason Prouty dubbed Jihad Jane by the New York Post was quickly cast as a terrorist mastermind by the relentless 24 hour news cycle and a scandal hungry public ate it up Though the CIA and federal judge eventually exonerated Prouty of all charges she was dismissed from the agency and stripped of her citizenship In Uncompromised Prouty tells her whole story in a bid to restore her name and reputation in the country that she loves Beyond a thrilling story of espionage and betrayal this is a sobering commentary on cultural alienation the power of fear and what it means to truly love America      A Citizen's Guide to American Foreign Policy David Patrick Houghton, 2013-11-20 American foreign policy often looks like a trail of man made debris and disaster Of course the explanations for many poorly made decisions are rather complex In this brief and cogent analysis Houghton shows us that understanding American foreign policy often comes down to recognizing the cognitive limitations of the decision makers which affects the foreign policy process Then there is the nature of the decisions themselves Quite a few decisions in American foreign policy involve tragic choices where leaders are effectively confronted with a series of progressively bad or uncomfortable options And it is equally clear that some policies are not the product of any one individual's preferences but emerge as a consequence of the way in which complex modern governments with large bureaucracies operate Written with the interested layperson in mind as well as students of international affairs this Citizen's Guide to American Foreign Policy asks questions like Why do presidents so often do things which seem to be directly against the national interests of the United States not just in retrospect but even at the time Why do there seem to be so many fiascos in US foreign policy Why does Congress sometimes tie the hands of the president in foreign affairs Why do presidents seem to respond more to opinion polls or to what's on CNN and Fox News than they do to the core interests of the United States Houghton's overview helps us see past the partisan in fighting that too often obscures the central issues in foreign affairs This is vital required reading for all readers who wish to better understand America's involvement in the world Into the Dark Craig Detweiler,2008-08 A Hollywood screenwriter producer and film professor explores forty five of the twenty first century's most popular films as vehicles of common grace The Role of Business in the Responsibility to Protect John Forrer,Conor Seyle,2016-09-29
