Ruptured Voices: Trauma and Recovery Karen O'Donnell,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Trauma is no longer and perhaps has never been an uncommon occurrence it is now commonplace in human experience Notoriously difficult to define when one tries to offer a definition of trauma that works across disciplines and beyond the boundaries of subjects one enters a new territory This collection participates in a reconstructive movement in which the boundaries of trauma trauma theory and trauma recovery are flung wide The vastly differing experiences contexts and critical reflections of the contributors serve to ensure this monograph offers a fresh voice in the field of Trauma Studies This collection of essays on trauma seeks to open dialogue and expand discussion Blurring the boundaries of traditional disciplinary lines this monograph strives to interrupt and rupture the debate on trauma It is in the fissures created by such rupture that new and compelling voices can be heard Developing Literacy and the Arts in

Schools Georgina Barton,2019-07-31 The teaching of the arts and literacy in schools is often at odds with one another The desire for schools to improve results on high stakes testing can lead to a narrow view of literacy rather than one that acknowledges the unique and distinct literacies that exist in other curriculum areas including the arts With methods of communication becoming increasingly complex it will be more and more important for students to be able to utilise all semiotic modes Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools investigates this key issue in education and offers a solution to the negative relationship between the arts and literacy Drawing on interview data and evidence from diverse classrooms it explores the pedagogies of effective arts practitioners and teachers and how they relate to theoretical frameworks to unpack the key elements of effective practice related to literacy and the arts A model of arts literacies is provided to assist arts and literacy educators in developing a common language that acknowledges and values these distinct arts literacies Themes of multimodality diversity aesthetics and reflection in relation to the arts and literacy are foregrounded throughout This book will be of great value to postgraduate students of Education specialising in arts and literacy education academics teacher educators and classroom and preservice teachers Katherine Dunham Joanna Dee Das,2017-05-17 One of the most important dance artists of the twentieth century dancer and choreographer Katherine Dunham 1909 2006 created works that thrilled audiences the world over As an African American woman she broke barriers of race and gender most notably as the founder of an important dance company that toured the United States Latin America Europe Asia and Australia for several decades Through both her company and her schools she influenced generations of performers for years to come from Alvin

Ailey to Marlon Brando to Eartha Kitt Dunham was also one of the first choreographers to conduct anthropological research about dance and translate her findings for the theatrical stage Katherine Dunham Dance and the African Diaspora makes the argument that Dunham was more than a dancer she was an intellectual and activist committed to using dance to fight for racial justice Dunham saw dance as a tool of liberation as a way for people of African descent to reclaim their history and forge a new future She put her theories into motion not only through performance but also through education scholarship travel and choices about her own life Author Joanna Dee Das examines how Dunham struggled to balance artistic dreams personal desires economic needs and political commitments in the face of racism and sexism The book analyzes Dunham s multiple spheres of engagement assessing her dance performances as a form of black feminist protest while also presenting new material about her schools in New York and East St Louis her work in Haiti and her network of interlocutors that included figures as diverse as ballet choreographer George Balanchine and Senegalese president L opold S dar Senghor It traces Dunham s influence over the course of several decades from the New Negro Movement of the 1920s to the Black Power Movement of the late 1960s and beyond By drawing on a vast never utilized trove of archival materials along with oral histories choreographic analysis and embodied research Katherine Dunham Dance and the African Diaspora offers new insight about how this remarkable woman built political solidarity through the arts Voyages in Postcolonial African Theatre Practice Charles Nwadigwe, Keneth Bamuturaki, 2024-03-25 Voyages in Postcolonial African Theatre Practice goes beyond the predictable academic discursive trips on postcolonial drama and theatre practice In 14 unique but interrelated essays this volume dissects the critical issues that envelop the practice of theatre in postcolonial Africa and the African Diaspora and how practitioners engage with the trends which arise The volume departs from the conventional theoretical constructs of humanistic studies and focuses on concrete realities that interface and interfere with the professional practice of African theatre a creative industry confined by the historical and dialectical motifs of the colonial experience Topics such as secondary adaptations theatre training and pedagogy censorship and performance politics applied theatre cultural policy and tourism scenography festivals and oral tradition dance internationalisation popular music text and the African film reflect the broad coverage and diversity of this volume on African postcolonial theatre practices from text to performance planning to production Reflections of Dance along the Brahmaputra Ralph Buck, Barbara Snook, Debarshi Prasad Nath, 2023-07-18 This volume brings a critical lens to dance and culture within North East India Through case studies first hand accounts and interviews it explores unique folk dances of Indigenous communities of North East India that reflect diverse journeys lifestyles and connections within their ethnic groups marking almost every ritual and festival Dance for people of North East India as elsewhere is also a way of declaring establishing celebrating and asserting humans relationship with nature The book draws attention to the origins and special circumstances of dances from North East India It discusses a range of important folk dance forms alongside classical dance forms in North East India with a focus on Sattriya dance The chapters examine how these dance forms play an important role in the region's socio-cultural economic and political life intertwining religion and the arts through music dance and drama Further they also explore how folk dance cultures in North East India have never been relegated to the background never considered secondary aesthetically or otherwise but have become expressions of political and cultural identity An evocative work this volume will be of interest to students and researchers of pedagogy choreography community dance practice theatre and performance studies social and cultural studies aesthetics interdisciplinary arts and more It will be an invaluable resource for artists and practitioners working in dance schools and communities

Cultural Revolution in Iran Annabelle Sreberny,Massoumeh Torfeh,2013-10-17 The Islamic Republic of Iran has entered its fourth decade and the values and legacy of the Revolution it was founded upon continue to have profound and contradictory consequences for Iranian life. Despite the repressive power of the current regime, the immense creativity of popular cultural practices that negotiate and resist a repressive system is a potent and dynamic force. This book draws on the expertise and experience of Iranian and international academics and activists to address diverse areas of social and cultural innovation that are driving change and progress. While religious conservatism remains the creed of the establishment, this volume uncovers an underground world of new technology, media, and entertainment that speaks to women seeking a greater public role and a restless younger generation that organises and engages with global trends online.
