Alberts, Thomas Nakayama, Judith Martin, 2021-01-07 Human Communication Stewart L. Tubbs, Sylvia Moss, 2003

Intended for the introductory communication concepts course versus the performance oriented hybrid course Human Communication Principles and Contexts focuses on the principles of speech communication and its contexts The award winning authors an academic and a professional writer write engagingly strive to link theory and research with fundamental concepts and to enliven the exposition with intriguing case studies useful interpersonal skills and stimulating examples Tubbs and Moss show a true understanding and sensitivity to diversity a reflection of their professional interests in gender and cultural issues Stewart Tubbs is the Darrell S Cooper Professor of Leadership in the School of Business at Eastern Michigan University Sylvia Moss received the Whiting Writer s Award for her poetry and has twice been a Yaddo Fellow Theories of Human Communication Steven W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, John G. Oetzel, 2025-07-28 The thirteenth edition arrives shortly before the fiftieth anniversary of Stephen W Littlejohn s visionary effort in writing the first comprehensive overview of theories of communication The newest edition provides thought provoking information about communication theories to new generations of readers eager to explore a vital topic Extending its contribution to the field Theories of Human Communication now offers a guide for beginning theorists The concluding chapter demystifies the theorizing process and offers step by step guidelines to join the community of theorists who improve human experience by conceptualizing ordering explaining and managing the phenomena processes and interactions encountered in the world The authors present a comprehensive summary of major communication theories current research extensions and applications Their engaging writing style and thoughtfully organized discussions make complex material accessible Compelling and realistic examples link theory with everyday experiences Part I sets the stage for how to think about and study communication Part II covers theories centered around the communicator message medium and social media Part III addresses theories by context relationships organizations health culture society and beyond human From the Source contributions from theorists provide insight into the inspirations motivations and goals behind the theories Readers explore the patterns trends trajectories and intricacies of the landscape of communication theory The coverage includes many theories important for their continuing influence in the field while discussions of emerging theories encourage thinking about issues in new ways This definitive classic and current text is an invaluable resource for future reference and illustrates the richness of communication theorizing Com 101 Ashland University, 2012 Human Communication Theory James William Neuliep, 1996 This work organizes human communication theories by the process of explanation not by traditional contexts It is designed to show students how communication theory actually works in their professional and personal lives Persuasion and Influence in American Life Gary C. Woodward, Robert E. Denton, Jr., 2018-06-04 The eighth edition provides a streamlined up to date presentation of classic and contemporary theories of persuasion For more than three decades the authors have guided readers through the cultural psychological and sociological forces influencing why how and when humans change their minds Exploring the complexities and subtleties of persuasive attempts from interpersonal interactions to political advertising is essential for making informed judgments about the value of increasingly pervasive messages The practice of persuasion is no longer limited to a select few and formal audiences Online networks with unprecedented reach extend opportunities for multiple persuaders and peer to peer influence Woodward and Denton acknowledge the opportunities and challenges posed by social media and various digital platforms The final chapter emphasizes visual communication and core strategies for the construction of short messages tailored for digital and commercial media Engaging descriptions and multiple examples illustrate the dynamic interactive nature of persuasion Short sidebars in every chapter suggest interesting applications of key ideas Becoming responsible ethical and credible persuaders and or critical consumers of messages is an intriguing and sometimes surprising journey
