

11) Federalism

- Federalism is a type of the system that governments will be able to control power

12) Governmental Structure

- Federalism is political system where local governments work with state (two structures regarding some governmental activities and others according to practices)
 - Economic structure, beyond the US
 - Local governments work in the US are called states (more local cities, counties, etc.)
 - They get to make their decisions
- Unitary System: local governments are subordinated to the national government
 - Opposite of federalism

13) Marriage

- Some of the national issues in American politics are, at their core, marriage and federalism.
- Some key issues involving federalism today are
 - Same sex marriage
 - Medicaid expansion
 - Expanded federal Medicaid block-grant program flexibility in Medicaid (states are left to make states that opt in all states)
 - Program constitutionally preserved and states free to expand within their boundaries
 - Generally speaking that new federal program go with medical insurance and not the allowed to that in order to not a cut and/or if state not opt in

14) Federal and State Power

- In general, the Federal government has power over economic issues, the military and defense
 - Because they affect movement in the nation and not just national level that local level things (like military and defense)
- In general, state governments have power over social, moral, and family issues

15) Positive and Negative of Federalism

- Negative view: Federalism blocks progress and prevents powerful local initiatives
 - Negative view: Federalism local power is a barrier
 - Negative view is that institutions is either working at national or smaller level
- Positive view: Federalism contributes to governmental strength, political flexibility, and fosters individual liberty and the development of leaders
 - Obstacles are insights of coming up through the other
