Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies

Diffraction Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractive Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading's intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live
