Talent Development and the Global Economy Fredrick. M. Nafukho, Khali Dirani, Beverly Irby, 2017-08-01 Talent has been identified as the only differentiator for an organization's nation or any region's success in this uncertain complex competitive and global environment Ulrich 2008 defined talent as the equation of 3Cs Talent Competence x Commitment x Contribution Malaeb and Chanaron 2010 p 2 noted Competence means that employees have the skills and abilities today and in the future for required business results Commitment means that employees are involved and engaged while Contribution means that employees find personal abundance at occupation While Ulrich 2008 observed that commitment focused on meaning and identity and other restraints that tap employee's heart This book is unique in many ways which makes it extraordinary First unlike other books that have examined issues of change facing the global economy no book has examined the issue of talent development from the perspective of special interest groups including management international students women refugees refugees non governmental organizations for profit for benefit and nonprofit organizations Thus talent development world over has become one of the most important issues when it comes to developing human resources especially through education and training The book presents pertinent research and practice on talent development management and argues that the term talent development broadly refers to management and development of high performing and high potential individuals in society required to carry out critical organizational and society roles aimed at improving human development The contributors of the book chapters include individuals actively involved in research teaching and practice in higher education and in business and industry The chapters are based on empirical data including review of relevant literature The book also recognizes that talent development is more than just crisis management and includes best talent management practices shared governance meaningful reforms strategic planning transparency and accountability social justice and respect for human life and the need to develop humane organizations and humane communities The contributions take cognizance of the fact that talent development as a concept is facing fundamental changes in the global knowledge economy and especially with political changes taking place world over Contributors also take cognizance of the fact that one important source of change in society has been the accelerating speed of scientific and technological advancement driven by the power of the Internet hence the need to develop talent for the 21st century and beyond The book is basically an academic book for use by undergraduates and graduate students at universities for profit for benefit and non profit organizations policy makers and formulators in ministries of Education supra national organizations foreign organizations multilateral organizations non governmental organizations community based organizations as well as development stakeholders and community organizers

Features of Social Media Bentley Martin, 2015-01-06 Today world is rapidly changing These days consumers want to have their say on every product and service they invest in Handling with cutthroat competition companies are actively seeking ways to increase more leverage through inventions With the birth of a whole new universe of social media      The Social Media Age Zoetanya Sujon,2021-04-07 Exploring power and participation in a connected world Social media are all around us For many they are the first things to look at upon waking and the last thing to do before sleeping Integrated seamlessly into our private and public lives they entertain inform connect and sometimes disconnect us They re more than just social though In addition to our experiences as everyday users understanding social media also means asking questions about our society our culture and our economy What we find is dense connections between platform infrastructures and our experience of the social shaped by power shifting patterns of participation and a widening ideology of connection This book introduces and examines the full scope of social media From the social to the technological from the everyday to platform industries from the personal to the political It brings together the key concepts theories and research necessary for making sense of the meanings and consequences of social media both hopefully and critically Dr Zoetanya Sujon is a Senior Lecturer and Programme Director for Communications and Media at London College of Communication University of the Arts London      Gendered Nature of Social Media Networks Usha Rana,Rupender Singh,2025-10-14 There is a complicated interplay between gender dynamics and technology in the digital age especially through social media Combining the knowledge of seasoned professionals and academics from around the world this new book investigates the complex and multifaceted relationship between gender and social media providing an interdisciplinary and international viewpoint on the subject Each chapter of the book presents a distinctive viewpoint on the interaction between gender and social media The book first provides a summary of the theoretical foundations and then delves into how social media platforms mediate and reflect societal constructs of gender and how those assumptions shape online experiences The book also discusses how gender representation on social media platforms may either challenge conventional standards or reinforce stereotypes The book observes how social media contributes to activism and social change discussing how it has been used by feminist movements LGBTQ activism and diverse programs to address gender inequality The book goes into further detail about these platforms darker sides including issues that include cyberbullying harassment and privacy worries that disproportionately affect women and other underrepresented groups      Social Catholicism for the Twenty-first Century?--Volume 2 William F. Murphy,2024-09-19 This rich collection of essays by distinguished scholars from across the globe can be read as sketching key steps on the path toward working in solidarity to build a future worthy of the human family through a new social Catholicism These steps include a contemporary renewal of Christian humanism and of human rights while learning to live as authentic Christian witnesses in pluralistic societies after the end of Christendom They will also include working for a just and sustainable economic paradigm becoming missionary disciples with a continual orientation toward the marginalized and overcoming the plague of racism by working to build a constitutional democracy for every citizen This societal renewal will require fostering robust movements of social Catholicism apt for our age within which Catholics will pursue the Universal Call to Holiness through living their earthly vocations in a spirit of social friendship They will creatively employ social media to foster apostolates extending beyond borders In an age of dark clouds threatening dystopia a new social Catholicism will require a reinvigorated pastoral leadership that has come to appreciate the dangers of populism and the need to instead foster solidarity and incarnate Christian charity through a better kind of politics
