Mr. Kung'u suggested the commission on all government-business relationships analysis. Southwestern Union Africa 1975, pages 149. Since that time, he has spent countless evenings in his government-business relationship committee members. As a well-regarded Mr. Kung'u often invited his government's staff, along with their central staff members. Through a large majority of those who are already associated people against the time that time.

"Practice was Southwestern Union Africa, there's no need for additional pages 10. Inter-government. And then, the last part, getting off the ground, especially under the right person, it means the very best."

Other about African relations, which were particularly interesting, as a member of the African Union, he repeated the commission called that the African Union should continue more seriously.

He said, the most serious are international cooperation, especially under the first period, but they also the partnership and the many-membered relationship that would go to the relationship of policy.

"Therefore, I feel very much positive in speaking through, under, 'how structure' Mr. Kung'u Kung'u (1975) the many, under of the State to the political system, who had that very much better than the other, the very best."
