

T1: Local history

- Local: Close to an area where you live.
- History is about how people, places and things change over time.
- Local history is about things, people and places in your community or your neighbourhood.

How do we find out about a local area?

- We will look at the information we can gather from looking at:

○ Photographs:

There are tons of pictures and photos available in history books and on the internet, where we can search for information on history as well as the present.

○ Writing:

Writings such as history books, articles and newspapers can tell us more about the history or the current events of a place.

○ Interview and a story with people:

During an interview, a person asks other people questions to find out about something. For example, it may be an older person who has been in a place for a very long time and were there when historical events occurred.

○ Objects:

We can look for objects like badges from a place to get more information about it.

U2: Find out about the history of a local area (P. 90-91)

New words:

Community	Group of people living in a particular local area.
-----------	--	---

- We can find out about the past in a local area in the same way we find out about the present in a local area. We look at information from:
 - Pictures.
 - Writing.
 - Stories and interviews with people.
 - Objects.
- A museum is a place where objects from the past are put on display. There are different kinds of museums. For example:
 - Transport museums, museums about nature, museums about collections of things people used daily.

1 – Nature Museum

2 – Transport Museum

3 – Da Vinci Museum
