Female Ritual Servitude The Trokosis In Ghana:

Female Ritual Servitude Wisdom Yaw Mensah, Francis Ebenezer Godwyll, 2010-01-07 The first mention of the word Trokosi can be traced to the work of A B Ellis in 1890 writing on the topic of Priesthood in The Ewe Speaking People of the Gold Coast As far back as the early 1900s a protest letter was submitted by a native of the Gold Coast to the Colonial Secretary of Native Affairs calling for an end to a practice that marginalized dehumanized and treated young virgins as slaves consecrated to the gods Unfortunately in 2009 the fight still continues The authors bring light to an issue greatly in need of critical scrutiny This book poignantly elucidates firsthand accounts of the voices of the Trokosi victims the geographical spread of the practice interrogates the social context in which the practice thrives traces the travailing journeys of the victims discusses the liberation efforts and rehabilitation programs examines the role of civil society in confronting the system and closes with the tensions within the discourses that support or reject the Trokosi system Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana David Stiles-Ocran, 2022-10-21 This book explores the kinds of Christian service or diaconia that develop in non institutionalized practices for supporting survivors of indigenous ritual servitude or Trokosi in Africa Drawing on empirical research from Ghana it examines the possibilities of freedom equality and dignity for liberated Trokosi and the manner in which these women s experiences constitute a repudiation of dominant patriarchal family systems With close attention to the work of indigenous parachurches which function outside of institutionalized churches in challenging the contemporary practice of ritual slavery and offering its survivors a lived space in which they need not remain hidden as they seek restoration and integration into wider society Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana will appeal to scholars of sociology theology and religion with interests in gender contemporary ministries and African religion Celebrating Life Customs around the World Victoria R. Williams, 2016-11-21 This book documents hundreds of customs and traditions practiced in countries outside of the United States showcasing the diversity of birth coming of age and death celebrations worldwide From the beginning of our lives to the end all of humanity celebrates life s milestones through traditions and unique customs In the United States we have specific events like baby showers rites of passage such as Bat and Bar Mitzvahs and sweet 16 birthday parties and sober end of life traditions like obituaries and funeral services that honor those who have died But what kinds of customs and traditions are practiced in other countries How do people in other cultures welcome babies prepare to enter into adulthood and commemorate the end of the lives of loved ones This three volume encyclopedia covers more than 300 birth life and death customs with the books content organized chronologically by life stage Volume 1 focuses on birth and childhood customs Volume 2 documents adolescent and early adulthood customs and Volume 3 looks at aging and death customs The entries in the first volume examine pre birth traditions such as baby showers and other gift giving events and post birth customs such as naming ceremonies child rearing practices and traditions performed to ward off evil or promote good health The second volume contains information about

rites of passage as children become adults including indigenous initiations marriage customs and religious ceremonies The final volume concludes with coverage on customs associated with aging and death such as retirement celebrations elaborate funeral processions and the creation of fantasy coffins The set features beautiful color inserts that illustrate examples of celebrations and ceremonies and includes an appendix of excerpts from primary documents that include legislation on government accepted names wedding vows and maternity paternity leave regulations Handbook of Research on Women in Management and the Global Labor Market Pereira, Elisabeth T., Paoloni, Paola, 2019-06-28 Existent literature has identified the existence of some differences between men and women entrepreneurs in terms of propensity to innovation approach to creativity decision making resilience and co creation Without properly examining the current inequalities in social economic structures it is difficult to examine the results of corporate female leadership The Handbook of Research on Women in Management and the Global Labor Market is a pivotal reference source that examines the point of convergence among entrepreneurship organizations relationship creativity and culture from a gender perspective and researches the relation between current inequalities in social economic structures and organizations in the labor market education and individual skills wages work performance promotion and mobility While highlighting topics such as gender gap woman empowerment and gender inequality this publication is ideally designed for managers government officials policymakers academicians practitioners and students African Childhoods M. Ensor, 2012-09-07 With 70 per cent of its people under the age of 30 Africa is the world's youngest continent African youngsters have been largely characterized as either vulnerable victims of the frequent humanitarian crises that plague their homelands or as violent militarized youth and troubled gang members Young people's contributions to processes of educational provision peace building and participatory human development in Africa are often ignored While acknowledging the profound challenges associated with growing up in an environment of uncertainty and deprivation African Childhoods sheds light on African children's often constructive engagement with a variety of societal conditions adverse or otherwise and their ability to positively influence their own lives and those of others Pan-African Issues in Crime and Justice Biko Agozino, 2017-07-05 Criminology is an established discipline yet non Western criminology is still relatively ignored in the literature Drawing upon materials from countries in Africa the Caribbean North and South America and Europe this stimulating book reflects on the experiences of people of African descent to offer a convergence of criminologies in and outside the West Trafficking in Human Beings Silvia Scarpa, 2008-07-17 In recent decades the international community has focused its attention on trafficking in persons one of the most worrying phenomena of the 21st century In Part I this book examines trafficking in persons in the light of the recent definition of the phenomenon given by the UN Trafficking Protocol and various other international legal instruments including treaties and soft law It analyses trafficking causes and consequences and the most common forms of exploitation related to it Part II reviews the most important international conventions against slavery and the slave trade and the Protocol to Prevent Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons Especially Women and Children It also analyses the most important policy documents setting the basic standards of protection for trafficked victims namely the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights Recommended Principles and Guidelines on Human Rights and Human Trafficking and comments on the extension of the jus cogens principle of international law that prohibits slavery to argue that trafficking in persons ought rightly to be considered a part of it Part III deals with the Council of Europe and the European Union and their fight against trafficking in people arguing that the focus has been placed mistakenly on the prosecution of traffickers rather than on the protection of trafficked victims The book concludes with a recommendation to shift towards a more balanced approach to trafficking in persons and the overriding need to conduct further research on specific issues related to the spread of trafficking and the exploitation of its victims

Children's Rights in Ghana Robert Kwame Ame, DeBrenna LaFa Agbényiga, Nana Araba Apt, 2011-02-22 This is the first book that examines Ghana's compliance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC Ghana being the first country to ratify the Convention it thus fills an important gap in the literature on Ghana The book throws a searchlight on a wide range of rights issues including children's identity violence against children and women child exploitation and children in conflict with the law plus a host of other CRC related issues and further identifies and explains the main obstacles in the way of realizing children's rights in Ghana A major strength of this book is that the contributors Ghanaians and non Ghanaians alike have vast experience in empirical research in Ghana and most importantly come from diverse academic disciplines Researchers instructors and students of Social Work Sociology Criminology Human Rights Education and Law are examples of a few academic disciplines that would find this book a welcome relief in their search for relevant and current data on children's issues in Ghana It should also be of great interest to policy makers human rights activists Children's NGOs and international development partners interested in children's issues Africa After Gender? Catherine M. Cole, Takyiwa Manuh, Stephan Miescher, 2007-02-07 Africa After Gender looks at Africa now that gender has come into play to consider how the continent its people and the term itself have changed Leading Africanist historians anthropologists literary critics and political scientists move past simple dichotomies entrenched debates and polarizing identity politics to present an evolving discourse of gender The Women, Gender and Development Reader Nalini Visvanathan, Lynn Duggan, Nan Wiegersma, Laurie Nisonoff, 2011-07-07 The Women Gender and Development Reader is the definitive volume of literature dedicated to women in the development process Now in a fully revised second edition the editors expertly present the impacts of social political and economic change by reviewing such topical issues as migration persistent structural discrimination the global recession and climate change Approached from a multidisciplinary perspective the theoretical debates are vividly illustrated by an array of global case studies This now classic book has been designed as a comprehensive reader presenting the best of the now vast body of literature The book is divided into five parts incorporating readings from the leading experts and authorities in each field The result is a unique and extensive discussion a guide to the evolution of the field and a vital point of reference for those studying or with a keen interest in women in the development process An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng, 2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante Abdul Karim Bangura Theophile Obenga Maulana Karenga Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah Ivan Van Sertima W E B Du Bois and several others Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens Ama Mazama editor author of Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet aka Ancient Egypt Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwame Ninsin's An Intellectual Biography of Africa A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate How Africa Was Demonized in the Media The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective

Childhoods at the Intersection of the Local and the Global R. Ame, 2012-10-23 Childhoods at the Intersection of the Local and the Global examines the imposition of the modern Western notion of childhood which is now deemed as universal on other cultures and explores how local communities react to these impositions in various ways such as manipulation outright rejection and acceptance The book discusses childhoods in different regions of the world and boasts a range of contributors from several academic disciplines such as Sociology Social Work Education Anthropology Criminology and Human Rights who are experts on the regions they discuss The book argues against the notion of a universal childhood and illustrates that different societies around the world have different notions of childhood This book is recommended reading for students scholars and practitioners working with children in the Global South as well as internationally Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act 2000, Trafficking in Persons Report, 2001 Brief narratives on countries with a record of severe forms of trafficking in persons information gathered by U S embassies from a variety of sources TROKOSI Augustine Sherman, 2018-08-18 If a girl runs away or dies she must be replaced by another girl from within the same family Some girls in ritual servitude are the third or fourth female in their family suffering for the same crime sometimes for something as minor as the loss of a trivial property In spite of being outlawed in 1998 which carries a minimum three year prison sentence

Trokosi is still practiced today in the Volta region in Ghana. Beside the Ewes that carry out the ritual, Togo and Benin also indulge the vile practice where it is called voodoo or vudusi. In Ghana, the setting of this account, victims are commonly known as fetish slaves because the gods of African Traditional Religion are popularly referred to as fetishes and the priests who serve them as fetish priests.

Oxford Handbook of Child Protection Systems Jill Duerr Berrick, Neil Gilbert, Marit Skivenes, 2023. This Handbook describes the ways in which 50 countries from every continent except Antarctica have devised measures to protect children from maltreatment and exploitation. The Handbook discusses the legislative responses, public administrative systems and the social service networks that governments utilize to secure children's safety. Synthesizing data from across the world, the authors suggest a global typology of child protection systems for understanding the diversity of service responses.

Global Criminology K. Jaishankar, Natti Ronel, 2013-04-25. Global criminology is an emerging field covering international and transnational crimes that have not traditionally been the focus of mainstream criminology or criminal justice. Global Criminology: Crime and Victimization in a Globalized Era is a collection of rigorously peer-reviewed papers presented at the First International Conference of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology (SASCV) that took place in Jaipur, India, in 2011. Using a global yardstick as the basis for measurement, the fundamental goal of the conference was to determine criminological similarities and differences in different regions. Four dominant themes emerged at the conference: Terrorism, In a topic that operates at the intersection of international law, international politics, crime and victimization, some questions remain unanswered: Is terrorism a crime issue or a national defense issue? Should terrorists be treated as war criminals, soldiers or civil criminals? How can international efforts and local efforts work together to defeat terrorism? Cyber Crimes and Victimization: Cyber space provides anonymity, immediate availability and global access. Cyber offenders easily abuse these open routes. As cyber space develops, cyber crime develops and grows. To achieve better cyber security, global criminologists must explore cyber crimes from a variety of perspectives, including law, the motivation of offenders and the impact on victims. Marginality and Social Exclusion: Globalization is manifest in the fast transition of people between places, societies, social classes and cultures. Known social constructions are destroyed for new ones and marginalized people are excluded from important material, social and human resources. This section examines how we can provide inclusion for marginalized individuals in the global era and protect them from victimization. Theoretical and Practical Models of Criminal Victimization: The process of globalization, as mentioned above, creates new elements of victimization. But globalization can also become an opportunity for confronting and defeating victimization through improved sharing of knowledge and increased understanding of the humanity of the weak. The emerging global criminology comprises diversity of attitudes, explanations and perspectives. The editors of this volume recognize that in the global village there is room for solid contributions to the field of criminology and criminal justice. This collection is a move in this direction It is hoped that these articles will help to expand the boundaries of criminology criminal justice and victimology with a view towards reducing crime worldwide
