rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4 Borders Exception and Sovereignty Australia s Migration Policies as Instruments of Suspension of Human Rights and International Obligations by Ana Carolina Macedo Abreu CHAPTER 5 Power and Sandwiched Sovereignty Nepali Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries by Hari KC CHAPTER 6 The Body and Embodied Experiences in the British Asylum System Developing a Conceptual Perspective by Rebecca Mavin CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health by Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebream PART C Migrants Strategies and Identities CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model by Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou CHAPTER 9 Urban Resistances and Migrant Activism Challenging the Border Regime in Madrid City by Ana Santamarina and Almudena Cabezas CHAPTER 10 RefConnect A Mobile Social Network for Refugees by Evdokia Kogia Styliani Liberopoulou Nikolaos Alamanos Vasilis Pierros and Christos Michalakelis CHAPTER 11 Halo Halo Nostalgia and Navigating Life for Overseas Filipino Workers OFW s in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia by Simeon S Magliveras Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar,2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their organizations and NGOs concerned with wealth and income distributions Earned Citizenship Michael J. Sullivan, 2019-03-19 The migration and settlement of 11 million unauthorized immigrants is among the leading political challenges facing the United States today The majority of unauthorized immigrants in the U S have been here for more than five years and are settling into American communities working forming families and serving in the military even though they may be detained and deported if they are discovered An open question remains as to what to do about unauthorized immigrants who are already living in the United States On one hand it is important that the government sends a message that future violations of immigration law will not be tolerated On the other sits a deeper ethical dilemma that is the focus of this book what do the state and citizens owe to unauthorized immigrants who have served their adopted country Earned Citizenship argues that long term unauthorized immigrant residents should be able to earn legalization and a pathway to citizenship through service in their adopted communities Their service would act as restitution for immigration law violations Military service in particular would merit naturalization in countries with a strong citizen soldier tradition including the United States The book also considers the civic value of caregiving as a service to citizens and the country contending that family immigration policies should be expanded to recognize the importance of caregiving duties for dependents This argument is part of a broader project in political theory and public policy aimed at reconciling civic republicanism with a feminist ethic of care and its emphasis on dependency work As a whole Earned Citizenship provides a non humanitarian justification for legalizing unauthorized immigrants based on their contributions to citizens and institutions in their adopted nation The Middle and Upper Paleolithic Archeology of the Levant and Beyond Yoshihiro Nishiaki, Takeru Akazawa, 2017-12-06 This volume is a compilation of results from sessions of the Second International Conference on the Replacement of Neanderthals by Modern Humans which took place between November 30 and December 6 2014 in Hokkaido Japan Similar to the first conference held in 2012 in Tokyo the 2014 conference RNMH2014 aimed to compile the results of the latest multidisciplinary approaches investigating the issues surrounding the replacement of Neanderthals by modern humans The results of the sessions supplemented by off site contributions center on the archeology of the Middle and Upper Paleolithic of the Levant and beyond The first part of this volume presents recent findings from the Levant while the second part focuses on the neighboring regions namely the Caucasus the Zagros and South Asia The 13 chapters in this volume highlight the distinct nature of the cultural occurrences during the Middle and Upper Paleolithic periods of the Levant displaying a continuous development as well as a combination of lithic traditions that may have originated in different regions This syncretism which is an unusual occurrence in the regions discussed in this volume reinforces the importance of the Levant as a region for interpreting the RNMH phenomenon in West Asia Constructing Nationalism in Iran Meir Litvak, 2017-04-21 Nationalism has played an important role in the cultural and intellectual discourse of modernity that emerged in Iran from the late nineteenth century to the present promoting new formulations of collective identity and advocating a new and more active role for the broad strata of the public in politics The essays in this volume seek to shed light on the construction of nationalism in Iran in its many manifestations cultural social political and ideological by exploring on going debates on this important and progressive topic

Beyond Control James F. Barnett Jr.,2017-03-16 Beyond Control reveals the Mississippi as a waterway of change unnaturally confined by ever larger levees and control structures During the great flood of 1973 the current scoured a hole beneath the main structure near Baton Rouge and enlarged a pre existing football field size crater That night the Mississippi River nearly changed its course for a shorter and steeper path to the sea Such a map changing reconfiguration of the country s largest river would bear national significance as well as disastrous consequences for New Orleans and towns like Morgan City at the mouth of the Atchafalaya River Since 1973 the US Army Corps of Engineers Control Complex at Old River has kept the Mississippi from jumping out of its historic channel and plunging through the Atchafalaya Basin to the Gulf of Mexico Beyond Control traces the history of this phenomenon beginning with a major channel shift around 3 000 years ago By the time European colonists began to explore the Lower Mississippi Valley a unique confluence of waterways had formed where the Red River joined the Mississippi and the Atchafalaya River flowed out into the Atchafalaya Basin A series of human alterations to this potentially volatile web of rivers starting with a bend cutoff in 1831 by Captain Henry Miller Shreve set the forces in motion for the Mississippi s move into the Atchafalaya Basin Told against the backdrop of the Lower Mississippi River s impending diversion the book s chapters chronicle historic floods rising flood crests a changing strategy for flood protection and competing interests in the management of the Old River outlet Beyond Control is both a history and a close look at an inexorable living process happening now in the twenty first century

Integrating Food into Urban Planning Yves Cabannes,Cecilia Marocchino,2018-11-22 The integration of food into urban planning is a crucial and emerging topic Urban planners alongside the local and regional authorities that have traditionally been less engaged in food related issues are now asked to take a central and active part in understanding how food is produced processed packaged transported marketed consumed disposed of and recycled in our cities While there is a growing body of literature on the topic the issue of planning cities in such a way they will increase food security and nutrition not only for the affluent sections of society but primarily for the poor is much less discussed and much less informed by practices This volume a collaboration between the Bartlett Development Planning Unit at UCL and the Food Agricultural Organisation aims to fill this gap by putting more than 20 city based experiences in perspective including studies from Toronto New York City Portland and Providence in North America Milan in Europe and Cape Town in Africa Belo Horizonte and Lima in South America and in Asia Bangkok and Tokyo By studying and comparing cities of different sizes from both the Global North and South in developed and developing regions the contributors collectively argue for the importance and circulation of global knowledge rooted in local food planning practices programmes and policies
