and how it might be assessed and improved and it focuses on rural Small and Medium Enterprises SMEs Traditionally business studies have seldom covered the manager as a person and a decision maker in any great depth Personnel management production economics financing operations analysis techniques etc tend to be emphasized but the personal attributes of the decision makers have as much influence on success as the rules of good decision making This book aims to correct this imbalance The human characteristics of managers that define how a manager operates are explored as are their impact on managerial ability The details of the competencies a manager must possess are also presented and discussed as well as potential detracting biases The book concludes with methods and techniques covering personal characteristic changes and associated managerial improvement The concepts and conclusions of this book are all based on a body of research excerpts of which are quoted in the text drawn from the rich sources available in the international literature Case studies describing successful managers and management advisors are used throughout From Head Shops to Whole Foods Joshua C.
