

Valedictory speech

"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

Ideas for Parents Mark Matlock, Christopher Lyon, 2012-07-03 You know you should be more than just housemates with your kids but as their lives become as busy as yours that feeling of belonging together can fade How do you maintain close bonds with your kids What can you do if you sense that your kids are pulling away in an unhealthy manner And what can you as a family actually do together that will be more meaningful than staring at screens in the same room With practical advice on how to deepen and expand your most important human connections Ideas for Parents will lead you in ways to develop and nourish the spiritual appetite of your family From rebuilding the heart connection with your child to giving the gift of your attention to learning the importance of saying I m sorry here is wise counsel quick tips and a Christian perspective on how to deal with a host of parenting concerns The Gastrend Conspiracy Harlan Hansen, 2009-12 The GasTrend Conspiracy is the fictional account of an attempted takeover of a natural gas distribution company by a major city through condemnation action and citizen vote The reasons for the attempted condemnation and ultimate ownership of GasTrend by the city are the mayor s hatred of GasTrend and the city s declining revenues due to an economic downturn The initial gas company crisis begins when a county road grader slips on an icy ridge in below zero weather The grader slides through a bridge railing and cuts open the high pressure natural gas line feeding gas to the city The ensuing explosion and fire consumes the road grader kills the operator and prevents new natural gas from flowing into the city thus endangering residents because soon there will be no heat Something must be done quickly or the residents could freeze In order to own and operate the gas company the mayor convinces some legislators to introduce a bill in the State House that would allow condemnation action This would insure that they would also pay for all of the expenses of the action and the subsequent election How can they get the natural gas business back on track so that it is working for the people and not against them Inland Educator and Indiana School Journal , 1903 SLLA Crash Course Wafa Hozien, 2017-01-09 This book fully prepares test takers with the content knowledge and strategies to pass the School Leaders Licensure Assessment SLLA The review manual and comprehensive study guide includes a thorough content review targeted strategies for every question type and two full length practice tests with complete answer explanations aligned to the updated ISLLC Standards 2015 By implementing a few critical strategies and focusing study time on the material contained here readers will be ready to ace the SLLA Texas Review of Law & Politics , 2001 Writing for Print Harry Franklin Harrington, Evaline Harrington, 1929 This work intends to give high school students an understanding of the public press and its function in promoting the welfare of the citizen Designing Elementary Classrooms James L. Taylor, 1953 Rudiments of Speech Edwin Gordon Lawrence, 1923 Reaching Higher Rhona S. Weinstein, 2009-07-01 Drawing upon a generation of research on self fulfilling prophecies in education Weinstein argues that our expectations of children are often too low She shows that children typed early as not very smart can go on to accomplish far more than is expected of them by an educational system with too narrow a definition of ability The Role of the Speech-Language Pathologist in RtI Wayne A. Foster, 2018-01-08 The Role of the Speech Language Pathologist in RtI Implementing Multiple Tiers of Student Support is an innovative resource for school based speech language pathologists SLPs The author examines the current interaction among special and general educators and identifies how SLPs best fit into a multitiered response to instruction process This collaboration requires school staff share the same vision on the operation of the system understand their respective roles and merge the curricular with the developmental perspective to build basic skills in support of student performance growth General educators have traditionally utilized the language of curriculum e g standards pacing guides formative and summative assessments to talk about student goals and achievement Special educators including SLPs most often utilize the language of development e g norms percentile ranks development milestones to measure student growth The Role of the Speech Language Pathologist in RtI assesses this apparent clash in nomenclature and identifies new ways for collaboration and cooperation among faculty and administration In order for the SLP to be an effective partner in the development and implementation of RtI the author proposes that SLPs should understand the language of general education be able to translate the curricular needs of students into skill based units that can be measured and progress monitored have full understanding of the developmental progression of skills and how that progression links to curriculum standards and be knowledgeable on evidence based practices that can have a meaningful impact on closing developmental gaps and result in higher achievement outcomes This text provides the blueprint for the implementation of a system of student support that was envisioned in the 2004 reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act IDEIA Unlike other books on RtI this essential resource addresses the very specific roles that different school level professionals must play to make the system effective No other text provides SLPs with such a comprehensive schoolwide perspective on the different roles in the process the different languages used by the professionals in those roles and how to navigate those different perspectives
