pushed to the brink of human endurance the Ghost Mountain Boys fell victim to malnutrition and disease Forty two days after they set out they arrived two miles south of Buna nearly shattered by the experience Arrival in Buna provided no respite The 32nd Division was ordered to launch an immediate assault on the Japanese position After two months of furious sometimes hand to hand combat the decimated division finally achieved victory The ferocity of the struggle for Buna was summed up in Time magazine on December 28 1942 three weeks before the Japanese army was defeated Nowhere in the world today are American soldiers engaged in fighting so desperate so merciless so bitter or so bloody Reminiscent of classics like Band of Brothers and The Things They Carried this harrowing portrait of a largely overlooked campaign is part war diary part extreme adventure tale and through letters journals and interviews part biography of a group of men who fought to survive in an environment every bit as fierce as the enemy they faced Ghost Hunting Diary T. Simmons, 2014-11-08 This collection of true ghost stories is a selection from those T M Simmons kept during her twenty five plus years of adventures in the paranormal dimension As a writer she felt compelled to keep records of her encounters and until now she has only shared these with a few friends and relatives Encouraged by their interest and the awe and sometimes apprehension on their faces she is publishing some of the dozens upon dozens of stories in her files
