

Call to Worship

Grace and peace to you in Jesus, radical story-teller of God's love,
And also with you.

Praise be to Jesus who re-stories God's love,
In Jesus we repent of a God of control and embrace a God of compassion.

A Mother-hen, not a fox. A Lamb, not a lion,
One who is known not by might but by wounds.

Wounds of love,
A love that refuses to let this world go.

A love that does not conscript us, forcing us to follow,
A love that gives us freedom – even freedom to walk away and act as if God were dead.

Yet even then God looks upon us with compassion,
Expectantly waiting in love for us to return home.

Judging ourselves unworthy to be called children of God,
God runs to embrace us while we are still far away.

Judging our neighbours unworthy to be called children of God,
God weeps for joy, care-fully dresses them and sets out a feast for them.

We come today as prodigals in solidarity with all prodigals everywhere, in a process of either leaving or returning home.
May we know your compassion.

We come today as elder siblings in solidarity with all elder siblings everywhere, in a process of either growing resentment or growing gratitude,
May we know your compassion.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view of judgement,
Not our neighbour and not ourselves.

For if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything has become new,
Our neighbour and ourselves. Amen.
Thanks be to the God of Compassion.

Methodist Call To Worship Examples:

Handbook for the Christian Faith James M. Dawsey, 2023-08-15 Is religion disappearing from American life Less than 50 percent of Americans now hold membership in any religious institution and even fewer attend worship services The decline in Christian churches is especially pronounced among the young and cuts across all denominations But for Methodists and like minded Protestants concerns are deeper than shrinking denominational membership Polls show disconcerting ignorance about religious and spiritual matters even among churchgoers Our values as a society are in large measure molded by religion What shape will Protestant Christianity take in the twenty first century And of Methodism And beyond that what kind of community will we be Dawsey proposes returning to the roots of Christianity And with anecdotes and stories and a sweeping grasp of church history he examines those essential practices and beliefs necessary to revitalize American churches Key he argues is rediscovering Christianity as a philosophy of living John Wesley characterized the practice of religion as first doing no harm second doing good and third keeping the ordinances of faith Loving God and God s creation the doing of Christianity marks the path for becoming the churches and individuals Christians were called to be

AquaChurch 2.0 Leonard Sweet, 2010-05-01 We live in a fast paced fluid world A postmodern place where people are drifting making mid course corrections in every aspect of life from careers to relationships to beliefs As church leaders we must continually reshape our ministries to reach a society adrift We must move from being adaptive to being proactive remaining flexible while delivering a uncompromising message AquaChurch 2 0 is a guide for developing responsive and relevant church leadership Fusing Biblical wisdom and modern day insights acclaimed author Leonard Sweet explores the essentials of leadership arts including vision creativity and teamwork This updated and revised edition will enable your ministry to navigate today s cultural currents provide a beacon to your community and connect with a postmodern world

Religion in Sociological Perspective Keith A. Roberts, David Yamane, 2015-07-18 This fully updated Sixth Edition of Religion in Sociological Perspective introduces students to the basic theories and methods in the field and shows them how to apply these analytic tools to new groups they encounter The authors explore three interdependent subsystems of religion meaning structure and belonging and their connections to the larger social structure While they cover the major theoretical paradigms of the field and employ various middle range theories to explore specific processes they use the open systems model as a single unifying framework to integrate the theories and enhance student understanding Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award Find out more at www.sagepub.com/sociologyaward Leading from the Table Paul Galbreath, 2008-04-30 The communion table stands as an intersection between Word and Sacrament between memory and hope between pastor and congregation between receiving and serving and between community and individual Leading from the table says Paul Galbreath professor of preaching and worship is a way of thinking speaking acting and living that grows out of learning to recognize and embody these connections in our lives as a congregation and as individuals Developing leadership skills that connect the congregation s eucharistic practice to the life and work of the church is essential to moving toward unity within congregations denominations and throughout the church This book is not a how to manual on presiding techniques however Rather this book is a series of reflections about the way the prayer at the communion table provides a pattern for our lives The goal is to shift our understanding of table prayer from a formula led by the pastor to a road map that highlights intersections between the practices at the table and the daily practices in the life of the community that gathers around the table Evangelical Dictionary of World Missions A. Scott Moreau,2000 The first comprehensive one volume reference work to consider the history of world missions and contemporary study of the subject from an evangelical perspective Evangelical Awakenings in the Anglophone Caribbean Paula L. Aymer,2016-09-29 This book examines the evangelical Christian worship focusing primarily in the island state of Grenada The study is based upon the author s detailed study of Pentecostal communities in that island state as well as her own background in Barbados The study traces the development of Pentecostal religious communities from Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century Wesleyan Methodist movement The Night I Came Out to God J. D. Waggy,2022-02-02 Denomination after denomination makes the news for the latest scandal or squabble around sexuality and identity and the same Bible verses get thrown around over and over In this mix of poetry and worship Waggy offers an invitation to conversation not about proving someone else wrong but about exploring the mystery of grace belonging and healing Written for Christians seeking to understand the LGBTQ community and for the community hoping to reclaim their Christian faith The Night I Came Out to God demonstrates that faithfulness has as many faces as the God it claims Michigan Christian Advocate ,1918 Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion.v.10 Joanne Marie Greer,David O. Moberg,2001-04-01 Various articles are presented covering psychological sociological and cross cultural topics or relevance to religious spiritual researchers and academics

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 10 ,2021-11-15 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in each volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious organizations and their clergy The value of the volume is that it gives to researchers in this area a broad perspective on the issues and methods of religious research across a spectrum of academic disciplines The aim of the book is to stimulate a creative integrative dialogue that will enhance interdisciplinary research
