Distant and exacting, Bruce Bechdel was an English teacher and director of the town funeral home which Alison and her family referred to as the Fun Home. It was not until college that Alison, who had recently come out as a lesbian, discovered that her father was also gay. A few weeks after this revelation, he was dead, leaving a confused legacy for his daughter to resolve. In her hands, personal history becomes a work of subtlety and power, written with controlled force and enlivened with humor, rich literary allusion, and heartbreaking detail.

A Graphic Memoir. The Perception of Authenticity in Alison Bechdel's "Fun Home" Maja-Felicia Kristan, 2019-09-23 Research Paper, undergraduate, from the year 2018, in the subject American Studies, Literature, grade 1.0, University of Erfurt, Philosophische Fakultät, course Literature in Images, Graphic Novels, language English, abstract: This work analyzes the perception of authenticity in Fun Home by Alison Bechdel. Fun Home from 2007 is a graphic memoir that tries to create a sense of truthfulness to the reality of the author's memories by employing various means. This paper examines the techniques Bechdel uses for the creation of what may look for the reader like authenticity. By using, for example, Philippe Lejeune's autobiographical pact, the text closely analyzes the presentation of text and image concerning the protagonist Alison and the narrating voice, as well as the role of photographs in the text. By investigating the protagonist's self-portrayal through text and images, this paper tries to point out the successfulness of appearing truth of the story as well as distinguish in which instance a disruption of before identified means in form of fictionalization can be found in the text and how this influences the perception of its authenticity. The second part of the paper then focuses on photography as another means to invoke a perception of truthfulness in the text, with special attention to photography as means of memory and truth based on theories by Roland Barthes and Marianne Hirsch, as well as its possible fictionalization through the confines of the graphic novel genre and its significance in relation to the text's authenticity.

A Little in Love with Everyone Genevieve Katherine Hudson, 2018 Growing up queer in the deep South, Genevieve Hudson longed for stories about lives like her own. stories into art and empowered future generations to embrace their own truths Back cover Fun Home Lisa Kron, Alison Bechdel, 2015 When her father dies unexpectedly graphic novelist Alison dives deep into her past to tell the story of the volatile brilliant one of a kind man whose temperament and secrets defined her family and her life Moving between past and present Alison relives her unique childhood playing at the family s Bechdel Funeral Home her growing understanding of her own sexuality and the looming unanswerable questions about her father s hidden desires Fun Home is a refreshingly honest wholly original musical about seeing your parents through grown up eyes Intertextuality in Alison Bechdel's "Fun Home", 2020-02-25 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Literature Modern Literature grade 3 0 University of Erfurt course Literature in images Graphic Novels language English abstract A lot of graphic novels work with Intertextuality because as a visual medium they can represent or quote another text even better than a normal novel Alison Bechdel s Fun Home is a prime example of those graphic novels that use intertextuality Her memoir is full of pop culture and book references My thesis is that the literary works and stories she has woven into her story mirror her own story and exist to further illustrate her struggles coming of age The structure of the paper is going to be the following first comes a short introduction on Intertextuality assisted by Graham Allen s Introduction to Intertextuality and Roland Barthes Death of the Author The next part which is going to be the main part focuses of course on Intertextuality in Fun Home Starting off the first subchapter is going to be about the repeated usage of the myth of Daedalus and Icarus as a display of the relationship between Alison and her father Bruce Bechdel I would like to search for the connection between this analogy especially how it was used and why *A Graphic Memoir.
