Since account. Although demo accounts attempt to replicate real markets, they operate in a simulated market environment. As such, there are key differences that distinguish them from real accounts, including but not limited to, the lack of slippage or real-time market liquidity, a delay in pricing, and the execution of some orders which may not be possible in real accounts. The operational experience when trading orders in a demo environment may result in slightly different execution, but it is not intended to be a source of exposure. There may be instances where major movements differ from those of live accounts as orders in demo accounts may not always execute with those of real accounts.
