The parent seems to view life in a very restrictive way, shown through the language which is quite blunt and unfriendly. The language doesn't coax the reader into the poem, which is seen through the opening line: 'Late October. It is afternoon.' The language feels mechanical, almost as if the speaker is just saying the necessary details to fill the reader in as fast as possible. There appears to be no real significance or meaning to the words, which could reflect their dull view on life. The tone seems robotic and cold; it isn't a warm poem as what the reader may expect from a
