

On his arrival from the United kingdom, the women bought uniform cotton materials from the UAC department store and sewed it in the same style. They had beautiful hairdos and composed songs in the name of Lawyer Nweze. The men also gather together and pay Lawyer Nweze a welcome visit.

Lawyer Nweze is highly respected as a true son of Ibuza for not bringing a white woman from the United kingdom. The Ibuza people view his visit to the United kingdom and talk about him like somebody that has paid a visit to God.

They are proud of him and look up to him as a saviour that would bring succour to the lives of the Ibuza people. Unfortunately, Lawyer Nweze disappoints them when he doesn't settle with his people, but settles in the northern part of Nigeria.

Lawyer Nweze is seen as a role model for Adah in the novel; he motivates and spurs her into schooling and travelling to the United kingdom. We are also able to learn about the superstitious beliefs of the Ibuza people. The educational level of the Ibuza people is reflected through him. His traveling back to Ibuza from the United kingdom shows how cooperative and united the Ibuza people are with the reception organised for him by the people.

Question 2:

Compare Adah with Francis in the novel.

NOTE: In answering this question, candidates are expected to:

1. Relate the question to the themes of the novel.
2. Identify the characters mentioned in the question.
3. Describe the attitudes of the characters to life.
4. Describe the attitudes of the characters to marriage.
5. Describe the attitudes of the characters to their children.

SOLUTION:

There are themes of gender disparity, parental responsibility, marriage and male chauvinism in the novel.

Adah and Francis are husband and wife. They are Igbo but brought up in Lagos. Adah is the daughter of Pa and Ma and a sister to Boy. She gets herself educated as a result of her dedication and perseverance against all odds.

Francis is a young man who wishes to become an accountant. He travels to the United Kingdom with the support of his wife to study. Adah joins him later in the United kingdom.
