My Father S Funeral:

Our Fathers Steven L. Shepherd, 2002-07-26 No one questions that men are profoundly influenced by their fathers but the shape and substance of that influence varies with each family In this the first anthology of nonfiction prose to explore this issue in depth editor Steven Shepherd has collected a diverse and invariably compelling group of narratives about sons and their fathers Fourteen excellent essays by some of our best writers says Anne Morris of the Austin American Statesman Among the contributors James Baldwin who reflects in his classic Notes of a Native Son on the father he barely knew partly because we shared in our different fashions the vice of stubborn pride The brothers Geoffrey and Tobias Wolff who write of their father from dramatically different perspectives A second generation undertaker Thomas Lynch who writes lovingly of burying his father And the acclaimed scholar of African American culture Henry Louis Gates Jr who grew up with a father who was not a race man yet their arguments were vital to the son s education

Fishing With My Fathers

Paul D. Rath, 2021-01-15 Between fish my father and I two men who are as comfortable with each other s voice as we are with each other s silences talk about the purpose of things and how everything fits into the overall design This book is like no memoir you ve ever read Paul Rath writes with the soul of a poet his prose alive with vibrant images and metaphors that capture the raw beauty and challenges of fishing for white fish in the frigid November air when the wind takes us into her cold mouth and crunches us between her teeth Her cold makes our eyes freeze until they feel like stones frozen in their sockets of mud Yet this no mere fish story As much as this book is about fishing it is even more about relationships Fishing with My Fathers explores the deep bonds that form between men of the earth between men and the land and the water and the creatures that feed their spirits Rath the eldest son of a Lutheran pastor pays homage to his father and tribute to the men who shaped and challenged him even as he claimed his own space and place in their lineage With wonderful humour and genuine sensitivity he regales the reader with tales of his father grandfather great grandfather as well as of his mentors of the men who taught him how to grow up how to control his emotions how to work how to grow his spirit how to love as well as how to fish community Moreover it s a celebration of gratitude The author s story encourages readers to think about what it means to die well as well as what needs to be said and done when someone comes to the end of their life It also serves as a helpful guide on what to expect if you re preparing for the death of a loved one The book serves as a bold proclamation that nothing can separate us from the love of God In fact God is always working even amid suffering dying and all the practical details that must be considered when someone dies Father and Son Edward C. Sellner,2001-09-06 Walk with the Devil Zakariah Ali,2012-11 I was profoundly touched by evil at the dawn of my life and have been haunted by the experience throughout most of my life My mother was poisoned before my eyes at about age four I grew up on that that fateful day and became aware of myself I was touched by evil and the wickedness of man against man at the dawn of my life She died an agonizing and horrible death The room I shared with her smelled like rotten fl esh or putrefi ed meat before her death But the last time I saw her on earth she looked radiant and was miraculously transformed when I saw her seated in the village square for public viewing She was at peace the lines and marks of pain and anguish etched on her face as she lay dying were smoothed out Her countenance was peaceful devoid of the expressions of agony and pains the hallmark of the last three to four months of her life She was beautiful in death than during the last months of her life death gave her peace I did not know it but I was affected or infl uenced by the events of my mother s last days on earth I do not fear death and whenever I came close to death I was more concerned about the inconvenience my death would have imposed on others than fear for my life Death is not a bogey man About a year after her death I encountered malicious spirits in the bush I did not know the spirits were not human but I was apprehensive and fearful at the sight of little people under the fruit tree on which I sat The spirits chased me from the bush to the village during the chase the earth opened up and swallowed me for my protection And not to be outdone the spirits followed me into the bowels of the earth That was the second time in my young life that I was touched by evil of a different kind I nearly died from the encounter with the malicious spirits I was reunited with a father I did not know I had before my mother s death But about three years after I was reunited with him he walked out on my new family my stepmother and her children Thus by age seven or eight I had gone through two broken homes First my mother walked out on my father when I was a baby and second my father walked out on my new mother and half siblings For most of my life I was haunted by forces of darkness malevolent spirits and scary nightmares from time to time Scary and haunting nightmares led me to discover the power of prayer very early in life I started praying before going to bed when I was in class three and the nightly nightmares ceased until I was a young adult and went to St John Bosco s College I discovered alcohol and began ignoring and skipping my nightly prayers or prayed haphazardly without heart and the nightmares came back I was hospitalized about fi ve times in one year from the effects of a nightmare and vision when I was a student at the University of Science he did not foist his faith on the rest of the family My stepmother followed no particular faith or organized religion until the last days of her life She was animist she worshipped our ancestral spirits and deities I became a Catholic or

Christian by virtue of education my father made no attempt to convert me to Islam The family while together was united by love not by faith each member followed his her own faith I could not reconcile my new faith with my parents and realized that but for love we would not have known peace in our family We are divided by faith but united by love that was the experience from my upbringing My lack of blind faith is influenced by my upbringing Man as God and Satan I understand the meaning of some popular bible passages different from most because of my experience of the forces of darkness my struggle in life against evil witchcraft and malicious spirits I understand the true meaning of the passage in Luke 17 20 21 For indeed the kingdom of God is within you And the adm
