Entertainments Andrew Lang,2021-08-19 The Arabian Nights Entertainments Andrew Lang One Thousand and One Nights is a collection of stories collected over many centuries by various authors translators and scholars in various countries across the Middle East and South Asia These collections of tales trace their roots back to ancient Arabia and Yemen ancient Indian literature and Persian literature ancient Egyptian literature and Mesopotamian mythology ancient Syria and Asia Minor and medieval Arabic folk stories from the Caliphate era Though the oldest Arabic manuscript dates from the fourteenth century scholarship generally dates the collection's genesis to somewhere between AD 800-900 Memories F. Max Müller, 2022-09-04 F. Max Müller's Memories serves as a fascinating introspection into the life and thought processes of one of the most pivotal figures in the field of comparative religion and linguistics during the 19th century. The book is structured as a series of autobiographical reflections elegantly weaving personal anecdotes with scholarly insights. Müller's literary style is characterized by its eloquent prose and an almost lyrical quality, allowing readers to traverse the landscapes of his experiences while engaging deeply with the broader intellectual currents of his time, such as Romanticism and the emergence of modern linguistics. The text not only sheds light on his contributions to philology and Indology but also captures the zeitgeist of a rapidly evolving Victorian society grappling with questions of faith and knowledge. Friedrich Max Müller, born in 1823 in Germany, became an influential scholar who was instrumental in bringing Indian philosophy and literature to the Western audience. His extensive studies of sacred texts and his passionate belief in the value of cross-cultural understanding informed his writings. The intellectual rigor combined with a personal touch in Memories reflects the rich tapestry of his life, shaped by his experiences across Europe and India and his pursuit of knowledge as a bridge between cultures. I highly recommend Memories to readers who are interested in the intersections of personal narrative and scholarly work, as well as those who wish to explore the development of religious and linguistic studies. This book not only provides an intimate portrayal of Müller's life but also invites readers to recognize the enduring relevance of his insights into the human experience.

Romance in Starland, and Other Stories Kate Elizabeth Perkins Glass, 1915 Bow Bells, 1868 My Memories Victoria (Princess of Prussia), 1929 Indian Antiquary, 1882 At a time when each Society had its own medium of propagation of its researches in the form of Transactions, Proceedings, Journals, etc., a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of Indian culture in all its aspects. This encouraged Jas. Burgess to launch the Indian Antiquary in 1872. The scope was, in his own words, as wide as possible, incorporating manners and customs, arts, mythology, feasts, festivals, and rites, antiquities, and the history of India. Another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in India and the West. The Indian Antiquary also dealt with local legends, folklore, proverbs, etc. In short, the Indian Antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of MAN, the Indian, in all spheres.

world's greatest stories dramatically retold for reading aloud with children aged 5-11. They vary in length and topic but all contain important Christian truths. There are a few Bible stories but most are taken from classic literature or from folk tales. Drawing on the rich imaginations of master storytellers throughout the ages, author Mark Griffiths brings their creations vividly to life. He includes three delightful tales from Oscar Wilde. His retelling of the Russian Shoemaker by Leo Tolstoy is enchanting and a must read for Christmas. There are other more traditional stories from around the world such as Antonio the Juggler from Italy and the tragic tale of Gelert from Wales. Some of the stories are true: the story of Gladys Aylward who rescued children in China and the delightful tale of how Amy Carmichael prayed for blue eyes. Others tell of wondrous adventure such as Ruth Sanderson's The Enchanted Wood and the delightful Hugs and Kisses contest. There are many, many more. This is a charming book that will be enjoyed time and again. It will hold the attention of both children and adults and will lead to fruitful discussions of bigger themes such as truth, courage, and identity.
