

A Lawyer – My Future Career

My passion of being a lawyer in the future is something that I think is most important to my growth as a person. I want to be more knowledgeable about what is our laws and I think it is something that is taught in school. How can we be law abiding citizens when we are not taught the laws for us to follow. My want to be a lawyer I think comes from the years of watching law and order svu and criminal minds. Since I can remember these shows has been on in my house and I have my mother to thank for that because it made my more knowledgeable about things that happen in our society.

I want to become a lawyer because I believe that it is a good way to help people in my society. I also believe that it will help me develop skills I can also use in life. Since I was young people have told me I should become a lawyer because of me being a talkative and inquisitive personality. I believe that the law profession has an important role in the community. It helps to analyze and solve legal theories. The law profession gives justice to each individual.

In this political climate where justice is not served to people's families who has had a loved one killed because of their race I want to give everyone justice and make a change. I would also want professional growth so that I can be the best lawyer possible. Characteristics that I think that a lawyer should have and I wish to possess are boldness and courageousness. A lawyer should have confidence in their abilities and integrity while doing their job. When a lawyer has these characteristics this creates a type of professionalism around them.

A lawyer must be in control of their emotions at all times and excellent communication
