

My family

My family has three people: my father, my mother and me. I am the only daughter in my family. I haven't any brothers. My father is a lecturer in a college. He is 48 years old. He has been teaching English for over 20 years. He is an experienced teacher. He has already written 40 books. My mother works at the same school with my father. She is 43 years old. She is a cheerful and pretty person. As for me, I am a pupil at a high school in the province now. I am a student. My dream is to be an English teacher like my parents. I hope that my dream will come true in a near future.

Beyond Yellow English Angela Reyes, Adrienne Lo, 2008-12-31 Beyond Yellow English is the first edited volume to examine issues of language identity and culture among the rapidly growing Asian Pacific American APA population. The distinguished contributors who represent a broad range of perspectives from anthropology, sociolinguistics, English, and education focus on the analysis of spoken interaction and explore multiple facets of the APA experience. Authors cover topics such as media representations of APAs, codeswitching and language crossing, and narratives of ethnic identity. The collection examines the experiences of Asian Pacific Americans of different ethnicities, generations, ages, and geographic locations across home, school, community, and performance sites.

Your Family Story Elizabeth Keating, 2025-07-17 What are the questions you'd regret not asking when they're gone? In Your Family Story, anthropologist Elizabeth Keating helps you to uncover the unique memories of your parents and grandparents and to create lasting connections with them in the process. By asking questions that make the familiar strange, anthropologists are able to see entirely different perspectives and understand new cultures. Drawing on her lifelong work in this field, Keating has developed a set of questions that treat your parents and grandparents not just as the people who raised you but as individuals of a certain society and time, and as the children, teenagers, and young adults they once were. Your Family Story helps you to learn about the history of your closest family members and to help you understand their perspective on the world. If you've ever thought of asking a parent or elderly relative about their past, read Your Family Story first. After asking the questions Keating suggests, you'll better understand not only your relatives and your heritage but also your world and yourself.

Deborah Tannen, New York Times bestselling author of You Just Don't Understand. If you've ever heard anyone say, "I wish I'd asked my mom about that," then this is the book for you.

Sarah Bird, author of Daughter of a Queen. Down to earth and easy to use, it's a wonderful guide.

Michael Erard, author of Babel No More. It has been a long time since I read a book that felt as urgent, timely, necessary, and utterly relatable throughout.

Alexandra Georgakopoulou, Nunes, professor of discourse analysis and sociolinguistics at Kings College London.
